Reports Heater Taken From Del-Co

Persons unknown cut the lock on the chain across the drive at the new Del-Co Water treatment plant site, just south of Alum Creek Dam, Friday night and stole a kerosene heater valued at $400-$500. Ronald Miller, of the Gaston Co. Grove City, reported the theft Saturday to Dep. McHenry.

Treasurer Says Taxes Are Coming in Slowly

County Treasurer Madge Conklin reports collections for first half real estate taxes are coming in slowly.

Deadline for first half taxes is this Sunday, Feb. 10. But as courthouse offices are closed Sunday, Madge reminds her office will accept payments up until closing time Monday, Feb. 11.

"We've collected $2,825,243 of the more than $9.8 million charged in this collection," Madge reported Tuesday. "With just under a week to go, we are running behind."

Conklin was to be in Sunbury Wednesday to collect taxes here, and her office will be open Saturday morning in the courthouse, 8:30 a.m. until noon. Regular daily hours are 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Madge also reports the county has already made its first distribution of tax settlement monies to the schools in the county. "We always make advances as soon as we get enough in," she says.

Included in those payments were $200,000 to Big Walnut, $250,000 to Olentangy, and $80,000 to the JVS, Conklin reports.

Harlem Trustees Hope to Build Storage Building

Harlem township trustees take time out from plowing snow to talk about plans for the year ahead.

The Harlem officials say their top priority for 1985 is to build a storage building for township equipment on land they hope to acquire from the Big Walnut school board. The land is next to the old Harlem school that the board sold to the Harlem Fire Association several years ago.

Although it may not happen until 1986, Harlem trustees are also considering an addition to the Harlem firehouse. The addition would provide firefighters a meeting room large enough to meet state standards for training classes.

Another mile of township road is scheduled to receive a tar and chip surface. Harlem has 21.77 miles of township roads, including ten miles of gravel roads.

Trustees note they are hoping to purchase a new township truck and perhaps a snow plow in the next two or three years.

Piper, 2174 Green Cook Rd., a farmer and Columbus Dispatch carrier, is in his 28th year as a Harlem township trustee.

Paul, 4854 Miller-Paul Rd., has been a trustee for one year. He is in the marine and recreational vehicle business.

A farmer, Buell, 967 Green

Cook Rd., has been in office four-and-a-half years.

Morrison, 14859 Center Village Rd., was elected clerk in 1983.

Voters Pass BW Levy Tuesday

Voters for the first time in three and a half years passed a Big Walnut operating levy Tuesday.

Twelve of the 16 precincts casting ballots on the 10-mill continuing tax passed it, with the final "unofficial" tally at 1,394-1,206. Elections office reports 39.6 percent of the registered voters in the school district voted.

The two Trenton precincts, and the combined Porter precincts, failed the operating levy, while voters in Harlem D precinct were tied, 46-46.

Board President Jim Heine told The News Wednesday morning that the "future at Big Walnut is brighter than it has been for a long time." He adds that this 10-mill increase will not resolve the money problems the district faces this year, but it will "provide direction for future planning."

Heine explains the board will have a "tough time" getting through this year, even by borrowing half of the increase. He says the board will have a better idea of their financial footing after the district receives the first half real estate tax settlement and after members know what money they will be receiving from the state.

"We'll try to squeak through this year, and not do much" Heine adds.

With this continuing base increase, the community will be relieved of more large levies, Heine says. He adds that future levies will be small ones for specific purposes.

In addition to improving the financial condition, this should "help the search for a new superintendent," he says. "Our new superintendent will know the Big Walnut community supports the schools. This should help us obtain the best possible candidates for the position."

Heine concludes "I know a lot of people, teachers, kids, bus drivers, everyone in the schools are excited today and have to feel that much pressure has been relieved."

Margin of 158 votes represents 6 percent of those voting, same percentage as the 10-mill levy failed by in last November's election. The levy failed then, 2,729-2,686, with a 76 percent turnout.

The 158 vote margin is also wider margin than the last operating levy passage in the Big Walnut district. Last levy to pass was the 7.2-mill emergency levy in November, 1981, which passed by 104 votes, 1,544-1,440. That levy also passed in 12 precincts; but was voted on in 20 precincts as it was a general election.

In Tuesday's election, Genoa precincts A and F, Genoa B, D and E, and Porter A and B, were combined by the elections office into three precincts. Elections director Virginia Sheets reports by doing so, the expense of Tuesday's election should be about

More Than First Class Raises Feb. 17

Sunbury and Galena postmasters point out more than just first-class postage rates will be increasing next weekend, Feb. 17.

Postmasters Bill Smith and George Hogg say just about every rate or fee charged by the U.S. Post Office is changing, as well as some of the categories for those rates.

Of course, the rate increase affecting the most postal patrons is the 2c increase on first-class mail, from 10c to 12c. "That's just for the one ounce, however," Hogg relates, "as each additional ounce will still cost 17c."

As most letters and first-class mail is an ounce or under, new 22c postage stamps are being printed. Meanwhile, the post offices both have D' stamps for sale, which cost 22c each to purchase.

Post Cards will also cost more Feb. 17, up 14c from the present 13c. Base rate for Express Mail will increase from $9.35 to $10.75 for up to 2 lbs. All Bulk letter third-class postage rates are increasing, too, about 13.8 percent.

One class that's actually going down is the 4th-class mail, Parcel Post. Hogg says, "Apparently to be more competitive with private parcel carriers." Parcel post rates range from $1.38 to $18.66 for non-bound printed matter, under the new rates.

Other post office rates and fees which affect several local patrons, according to Smith and Hogg, include Insurance Liability, Certified Mail, Return Receipts and Money Orders.

Insurance Liability at present costs 50¢ for coverage of from 1c to $20. Under the new rates, the base rate has been extended to cover from 1c to $25, with the same increase to 50¢.

Certified Mail carries a fee of 75¢, as present in addition to the increased postage rate, and Return Receipts will now cost 70¢, up from 60¢.

Money Orders will be available only in two price categories, with a new top limit. "Money Orders now have a $500 limit, with the minimum charge of 75¢ for anything up through $25, from $25.01 to $50, $1.10, and $50.01 to $500, $1.35," Smith explains.

Under the new rates, Money Orders $25 and under will still cost 75¢, but any over $25, with a top limit of $700, will cost $1.00, he adds.

Hogg and Smith add that rates for International Mail will also go up Feb. 17. "Both airmail and surface transportation rates are increasing, and persons mailing to locations outside the United States should check with us first to determine the right postage," the postmasters add.

"These are just some of the more commonly used fees and rates we have," Smith and Hogg say, "but all our rates are changing with the Feb. 17 date."

BW FFA Wins 9 District Awards

by Todd D. Stockwell
BW FFA President

Big Walnut FFA won nine proficiency areas out of 26 at District 7 evaluations held Jan. 31 at the Licking County JVS.

Of the 21 schools competing in the district, Big Walnut, Buckeye Valley, and Delaware County JVS combined to capture 48 percent of the first places for proficiency awards, officer books, and public speaking, and 30 percent of the total awards given.

Big Walnut advisors Steve Gratz and Mike Kussinger commented that Big Walnut's showing was the best in several years. Chapter president Todd Stockwell was awarded first in Agricultural Mechanics and also in Accounting. His State Farmer Degree application will continue to the state evaluations.

Past chapter president and a first year graduate, Dan Hale, won first in Beef, Wheat, Corn, and Diversified Crop Production. Bill Bieri, chapter vice president and North Central State Sectional Vice President, gathered first place honors in Outdoor Recreation, Wildlife Management, and Forestry.

Adam Roof, a junior, took third in Placement behind two graduates to round out Big Walnut's District Awards.

In the officers' books competition, Jennie Hildreth's secretary book and Mary Hale's treasurer book earned gold ratings.

Earlier this year, Big Walnut's Parliamentary Procedure Team received a gold rating. Bieri placed first in Extroverted Public Speaking, Brian Miller earned a gold rating in the Creed Contest, and Mary Hale received a gold in first year Prepared Public Speaking.

Submitting State degree applications from Big Walnut were Joe Bieri, Jennie Hildreth, Eric Johnson, and Stockwell. The State Farmer degree is the highest award a state association can bestow upon an individual member. Only three percent of the district's membership add to the district's membership and the community to help with medical expenses.

membership in the state receives the State Farmer Degree.

Stockwell's application scored at 28 of a possible 100 points and was the third highest in the district in qualifying for the state's final scoring and confirmation.

Proficiency Award winners also advance to the state level. From the 15 district winners in each area, three are selected as state winners. The top three in each area will be determined Feb. 11 at State evaluations. On Feb. 12 the three applicants selected will be interviewed to determine their final placing.

In the area of Agricultural Mechanics, Stockwell received a first for the second time at the district level after advancing to the state's top three last year, winning second place. Stockwell's application was scored on its scope which included over 1600 hours of agricultural mechanics experience.

Agricultural mechanics includes all experience related to the maintenance, repairs, operation, renovation, and selection of agricultural machinery. Also included in experience is the construction and repair of agricultural buildings and improvement projects such as fencing.

Stockwell has gained experience in maintaining, repairing, and operating the farm equipment used in his crop enterprises and in antique tractor restoration. The latter includes assembling a personal collection of 20 antique tractors and serving as chairman of the 1984 and 1985 Ohio State Fair Antique Tractor Show.

Stockwell has also established an antique tractor restoration shop providing full research, restoration, and parts location services and deals in new, used, and reproduction parts for both antiques and older tractors still in service.

Other areas in the application include an inventory of equipment, tools, etc., skills and competencies gained; safety practices; related activities; FFA, school and community leadership development; and other information and supporting evidence.

Stockwell's first place Accounting Award was secured in his description of his record keeping practices, his evaluation of that original flock.

In the early part of the century, almost all farmers in eastern Delaware county raised sheep and the emphasis was on good wool, she says, which the Monroes had.

Crossbreeding to grow lambs for meat came later.

Williams strives for sheep that can compete in both the wool and meat markets.

She sheds her ewes with Corriedales to improve the wool quality. For improved meat market lambs she has introduced Dorsets, Southdowns, "Yorkfords," Columbias, Shropshires, and lately, Suffolks.

You have to give up a little of one to get the other," Williams notes, but she aims for the best of both worlds.

Williams plans for early lambing so she can get the heavier early spring prices and because early lambing seems to fit best between the fall harvest and spring planting chores of the farmer who helps her.

The ewes are brought into two big snug barns about the middle of November and shared. They will stay in the barns until the warm weather of early May.

Lambing begins about the end of November, peaks in December and is nearly done by February, she says.

"It does seem that lambs come on the coldest and snowiest days," Williams says. "We used to think they all came at the wrong time of the night, too."

Although lambs are "awful tough," in extremely cold weather they are subject to pneumonia. The ewes don't give as much milk and they may not look after their lambs as well.

Williams lost more lambs than usual in the cold of December, 1983.

"Chilling puts stress on them," she says. "They have weak hearts and they don't hold up well under stress."

However, she notes, both ewes and lambs have fewer problems since the government began to allow the trace element selenium in feeds. Selenium is present in the soil in western sheep states, but not in Ohio.

A 1939 graduate of the old Brown High School, Williams

Lambs, a symbol of spring for many, usually arrive in deepest winter for farmers aiming for high prices on the April market and for 4-Hers aiming for prizes at the county fair.

into the world during the cold days of January.

Williams, who has been raising sheep in the Kibbourn area for more than 40 years, is greeted, right photo, by some of the younger members of her flock.

Williams has 200 ewes and will have more than 200 lambs when lambing is done, yet she knows each individual.

Although lambs are "awful tough," Williams says they are susceptible to pneumonia. In periods of extreme cold the ewes may not give as much milk and may not take as good care of their offspring as usual.

Extreme cold is a stressful time for both lambs and mothers.

Williams thinks more sheep die from stress than any other cause.

Pruett Benefit Is at Intermediate

Community members are hosting a benefit for Ed Pruett on Friday at the Big Walnut Intermediate school.

The benefit will begin with a chili supper held from 4 to 7:30 p.m. Chili or a salad will be served for $2.00, or both for $3.00. Children under 12 will be served for $1.50.

Basketball will be played from 5 to 8 p.m., with a pie-in-the-face auction at 8 p.m. Chip Carpenter will be the auctioneer. At 9 p.m., Darrel Adkins and Sugar Creek will perform bluegrass music and the Del-Morrow County Travelers will demonstrate square dancing. At 10 p.m., a raffle of a 1977 Pontiac Bonneville, Magnavox VCR, Clock radio, and other assorted prizes will be held.

Door prizes will be given away throughout the evening. Some of the prizes include a water heater jacket, kitchen sink faucet and installation, silk flower arrangement, NAPA mini cars, electric heater and cooler, coats, dry-cleaning as well as many other items.

Donations for the evening's activities will be $5 for adults, $2.50 for students, children under 12 will be admitted free.

All proceeds from the benefit will be given to the Ed Pruett Fund.

Ed was diagnosed as having cancer in July and has remained in the hospital since the beginning of August. The benefit is being organized by the combined efforts of Nestle and employees, and the community to help with medical expenses.

For additional information, or to make a donation, call Nestle Foods, 965-1505.

Chamber Pledges Work for Businesses

"We're willing to work hard to get things done," quoted Big Walnut Chamber president Phil Shaffer to the group's first meeting of 1985 last Thursday evening. Big Walnut Area Chamber of Commerce discussed some of its ideas to promote area business, including publishing a business directory for the area, and increasing membership to get more input into what the business community here needs.

The chamber president said "I'm really excited about the potential for this area over the next decade," Shaffer said, giving his overview of the group's course. "I'm excited about the business opportunities and the upcoming growth in population as 'challenging to the businessmen and women of the community here."

"These spell opportunity for us, more so than for any other county in the area," he said. "We've seen what's happening northwest of Columbus, and it's only a matter of time until the north-eastern area grows like it."

As chamber projects, Shaffer emphasized increasing the membership. "We want the business community to tell us what they need, and we'll go with it." He pointed to the directory of area businesses as one means of getting the word out. "We plan to put one in every household in the area, so more of those dollars spent are spent right here at home."

Another project for the chamber to develop a questionnaire to get feedback from the local business community. "We need to know what they want from us."

While the Federal Government allows the States certain rights of self-government and the States allow local government the same rights, Ed Cross wants them to take it back!

And yes, Ed, you are right. Others have written and suggested that we get back to the basics. In the first grading period of the school year, 107 high school students got back to the basics and made the Honor and Merit Roll. It seems to me that the students and teachers have a pretty good grip on the basics. But it takes more than the 3 Rs to get our kids from diaper to diploma.

Shaffer said the group plans to "bring some major speakers in here" for its programs. For instance, he reported, former Delaware city manager Maynard Dils is scheduled for the February meeting, which will be held Feb. 28.

Representative from the Ohio Chamber of Commerce office was unable to come to this month's meeting, due to illness, but told Shaffer he'd be here in March.

LEVY PASSES
800 less than last August's Special Election, which cost the Big Walnut district $5,444.14. Last August, the 3-mill continuing levy failed 389-749, with 17 percent turnout, and in May of last year, the same levy failed 937-1,169, with 31 percent turnout. In November, 1983, the board was asking for a 2.9-mill emergency levy, which failed 1,597-2,305, and a 1-mill permanent improvement levy, which went down, 1,395-2,279.

Following are the "unofficial" results of precinct voting from Tuesday's election:

Galena 62-36; Sunbury A-81-76; Sunbury B-106-67; Sunbury C-102-82; Berkshire A-77-79; Berkshire B-91-69; Genoa A & P-119-92; Genoa B & E-96-88; Harlem A-73-51; Harlem B-73-50; Harlem C-73-72; Harlem D-64-46; Kingston, 110-61; Porter & A-86-127; Trenton A-64-91; Trenton B-99-108.

Representative from the Ohio Chamber of Commerce office was unable to come to this month's meeting, due to illness, but told Shaffer he'd be here in March.

Shaffer said the group plans to "bring some major speakers in here" for its programs. For instance, he reported, former Delaware city manager Maynard Dils is scheduled for the February meeting, which will be held Feb. 28.

Memories and Memos
by Joyce Stockwell

— How Low? - How about these low temperatures we've been experiencing? John DeWitt of Hartford Road says it was 20 below at his place on Monday, Feb. 4, at 5 a.m.

— Early that same morning it was -25 at Pagetown where Del and Marlene Pook live. It was -19 on Sunday, Feb. 3, at the Dana Baning residence on Trenton Road, Galena.

— Early Birds - What is it with all of these robins appearing in such cold winter weather? Lovett Murphy was The News' first caller pertaining to seeing robins. There were 10 in his yard last Wednesday morning, Jan. 30. They were trying to stay off the snow by finding bare spots in the yard and on Murphy Road. The John Whitneys saw a robin singing a spring song that same evening at the high school. Bob Michaels was in last Friday. He said there were many doves and some robins drinking from his creek. They made so much noise that his dog went to see what was happening. Roscoe Reynolds of Harriet Avenue said there were 20 robins plus in his and the Pete Laymons yards this Monday morning. Geri King of McGill Street also called Monday. She said it is the male robins who come back first. Lovett says, "What does this mean? It's like people coming back from Florida too soon." He continued that diet consisted mainly of worms. "Does anyone have the answers to these questions?"

— Note To Roy - You can stop protesting, Roy! shave off your beard and cut your hair. The Big Walnut school levy passed!

— Nice Reports - Big Walnut High School students Heidi McDannald, Mendi Myers, Marsha Rice, and Todd Stockwell, along with Mark Predieri, Guidance Counselor, were on a program heard over WDLR Tuesday morning. The students told about their many activities at Big Walnut. Nice job, kids.

— Readers Will - Florence Allard of Columbus recently renewed her subscription and enclosed a note. She says she really enjoys the paper and looks forward to Friday, the day the paper arrives.

— Award Nominee - Happy Canine Helpers, Inc. is one of the finalists in The Columbus Dispatch's Community Service Awards, nominated in the Humanitarian Service category.

— Correction - Video tape player loan fee at the community library is $5.00, not $4.00, as reported in The News last week.

— Public Appeal - Arthur Barnett, Kingston twp. trustee, says people try to pass the snow plows and graders while he operates and are endangering the drivers as well as themselves. Art is appealing to the public to have more patience while the tow-plow roads are being plowed.

— Hazardous Walks - The News office is receiving calls about snow on sidewalks not being removed. Accumulated snow presents a safety hazard and often forces pedestrians to walk in the street, another dangerous situation. If you cannot clean the walks yourself, make there is an energetic young person who will.

Sunbury Methodist Begins Film Series

Sunbury United Methodist Church will host a six part film presentation, "His Stubborn Love" at the church's Fellowship Hall, beginning next Sunday.
The program, which runs from Feb. 17 through Mar. 24 will include a film as well as a study guide and discussion following the movie.
Brent Bowsher, the Family Coordinator for the church, is coordinating the program.

The film production was written by nationally known Joyce Landolt. The six films each touch on a different aspect of modern life.
The first film, Change Points discusses "hope for the crisis points of life," according to the reference guide from WORLD, which distributes the films.
The second film, to be shown Feb. 24 is titled Your Irregular Person, and will deal with "overcoming disappointment, hurt and rejection from those who refuse our love." Subsequent films are called Mourning Song, God's Waiting Room, His Stubborn Love and Tough and Tender.
The films will be shown 7:30 Sunday evenings. A free will offering will be taken.

If This Is Your Only Retirement Program... It May Not Be Enough!

Every wage earner - including those covered by a company pension can have their own tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account.

In fact, anyone under age 70 with earned income - even a part-time worker - can take advantage of a tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account.

A tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account can add diversification and supplement a company pension plan and you can continue your contributions regardless how many times you change jobs.

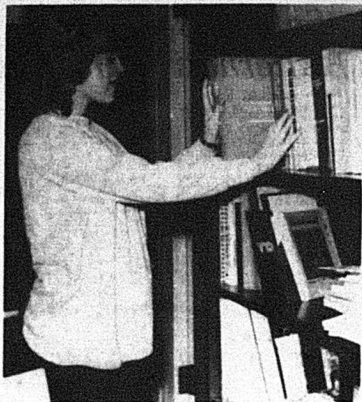

You can contribute any dollar amount up to $2,000 a year if your spouse earns $2000 or more, the total family contribution can double to $4,000 annually. If one spouse is not employed, you can open a Spousal Individual Retirement Account and you can contribute $2,000 annually. Not only do you reduce your current Federal income taxes, you earn tax-deferred interest on your contributions.

Your independent hometown bank offers you the option of a variable or a fixed interest rate for 18 months. Stop in and ask for your current interest.

The earlier you make your contributions the greater your tax-deferred earnings will be. This chart shows the growth of an Individual Retirement Account based on a 12% daily compounded annual interest rate with a once a year deposit. Amounts and interest rate are only assumed and are not guaranteed.

"Soup is good food." "Soup is good for you." We are all familiar with these slogans of the most popular soup company. And how true!

Besides being nutritious and reasonably low-calorie, having a variety of soups on hand is so convenient. For cooking casseroles, making sauces and gravy, that condensed can of soup on your shelf is so versatile the possibilities are endless.

The art of soup-making is a fascinating chapter in world history. In the 12th century, soup-making was such a refined skill that sometimes five or six kinds were served at a single meal.

In 1765 an enterprising Paris tradesman began selling bowls of soup that could be bought at any hour. He called them "restaurants" or pickups. They were so popular that the custom spread, and eventually additional dishes were also offered.

The following recipes are made with soup and are tried and true. This first one is our family favorite. Bon appetit!

Hamburger Pie

1 lb. ground beef
1 medium onion
salt & pepper to taste
1 1/2 lb. can cut green beans, drained
1 10% oz. can condensed tomato soup
5 medium potatoes, cooked
1/2 cup warm milk
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup French fried onions

1/2 cup shredded cheddar cheese (or American)
In large skillet, cook meat and onion till meat is lightly browned and onion is tender. Season. Add beans and soup, pour in greased 1 1/2 qt. casserole. Mash potatoes while hot, add milk, egg and French fried onions. Season to taste. Spoon in, mounded over casserole. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake 25-30 minutes at 350 degrees. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Sausage & Macaroni Bake
1 7/8 oz. macaroni & cheese dinner
1 10 oz. pk. frozen broccoli spears, thawed and drained
1 lb. smoked sausage
1 10% oz. can cream celery soup
1/2 cup green onion slices
Prepare dinner as directed on package. Cut broccoli into about 1-inch pieces. Add with remaining ingredients to macaroni dinner, mix well. Spoon into 2 quart casserole. Cover and bake 350 degrees for 45 minutes or until heated through.

Serves 6 to 8

Easy Swiss Steak
1 1/2 lbs. round sk. (1 1/2" thick)
2 Tbsp. shortening
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) condensed golden mushroom soup
1/2 cup chopped canned tomatoes
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup water
dash pepper
Pound steak; cut into serving-size pieces. In skillet, brown steak in shortening; pour off fat. Add remaining ingredients. Cover; cook over low heat 1 hour 30 minutes or until tender. Stir occasionally. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Valentine's Day is next week. Why not bake your special Valentine this delicious -

Valentine Chocolate Cake
2 1/2 cups flour
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 tsp. baking soda
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup buttermilk
1/2 cup chocolate syrup
1 tsp. vanilla
2 eggs
1/2 cup chocolate syrup
Chocolate Sundae Filling (below)
1 Tbsp. chocolate syrup
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease and flour 2 round pans (9 x 1 1/2"). Beat all ingredients except 1/2 cup chocolate syrup, the Chocolate Sundae Filling and 1 Tbsp. chocolate syrup, in large mixer bowl on low speed, scraping bowl constantly, for 30 seconds. Beat on medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally, for 3 minutes. Reserve 1/2 cup of the batter; pour remaining batter into pans. Mix the remaining 1/2 cup chocolate syrup into reserved batter. Marble half the mixture into batter in each pan. Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean - about 35 minutes. Cool; remove from pans. Cool completely.

Frost layers with Chocolate Sundae Filling and drizzle 1 Tbsp. chocolate syrup over top. For decoration, you may draw a red-shaded heart on top. Be sure to refrigerate any remaining cake.
Chocolate Sundae Filling
Beat 1 cup chilled whipping cream and 1 cup chocolate syrup in chilled bowl until stiff.
*May use 2 heart-shaped pans.

Offers Classes on High Blood Pressure

Delaware County Health Department, with the Delaware Chapter of the American Red Cross, will conduct classes to help people with detected high blood pressure, according to Frances M. Veverka, Health Commissioner. Classes will start Tuesday, Feb. 19.

Registered nurses and a registered dietitian will present the newly developed "High Blood Pressure Control: It's Up To Me." The class will discuss cardiovascular disease and risk factors.

"I Always Take My Medicine Sometimes" is the topic for the second session, to be held Feb. 26. This class will talk about getting to know your medicine and tips on taking pills.

Learning how to change your diet one step at a time will be taught at the third class, "Eat, Think and Be Healthy." Other topics to be discussed at the class include sodium, potassium and losing weight.

On March 12, the class will learn about "Taking Blood Pressure Home." The class will measure blood pressure will be discussed, plus tips on cholesterol control and exercise will be presented.

Learning how to keep tabs on your progress and how to work out solutions to problems will be taught at the Mar. 19 class. "So How Am I Doing?"

YOUR EYES

By Dr. Brian A. Dittenber

CENTRAL VISUAL FIELDS

The natural aging process may decrease one's field of vision, which is defined as the peripheral distance one sees when looking straight ahead. In more extreme cases, a person of 60 may have only about half as large a visual field as a person of 20.

A complete visual examination includes testing for peripheral vision.

One way of testing visual fields is to ask the patient to look straight ahead at a defined target, generally a light. At the same time, the examiner flashes lights at various distances from the central fixation target, and asks the patient whether he or she sees the peripheral lights and how many of the lights are visible. The lights may be circles, or they may be other shapes.

Peripheral vision is important for avoiding accidents, driving, sports, crossing the street, soldiering - an infinite number of everyday activities. In some patients, peripheral vision can be improved with contact lenses.

Hello!
Last Sunday we went to the Auto Show '85. Prices ranged from a $100,000 Buick to a $2,000 Chevrolet. Average cars fall between $12,000 and $20,000. Does the price of the car dictate the cost of the repair? Generally yes. Buy an expensive car and budget repairs accordingly.

From Over Sparta Way

by Virginia Kinney

Sympathy is extended to the family of Cecil (Ted) Belcher who died Saturday, Feb. 2 at Knox Community Hospital, Mt. Vernon. The funeral was Wednesday at the DeVore Funeral Home in Marengo with burial in Maple Grove Cemetery, Chester. Mr. Belcher spent the largest share of his life in this community and will be sadly missed.

We were sorry to hear that Zana Harris fell and broke her hip. She underwent surgery on Wednesday and is reported doing well at this time.

Harold Robertson of Centerville and Ralph Robertson of Mt. Vernon were visitors the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blubaugh and son, Joe, of near Mt. Vernon were Sunday afternoon visitors in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stryker spent Monday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kerscher of Worthington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Linkous and Michele of Mt. Vernon were Sunday afternoon visitors of Manzie Buck, Steve Buck and son, Glen, of Fredericktown were Saturday morning breakfast guests of Mr. Buck.

Happy birthday to Paul Belcher who is 78 this Monday. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Throckmorton of near Mt. Gilgoad, Maxie Keller and Virginia Kinney all had dinner at a restaurant near Marengo. The occasion was a belated birthday party in honor of Mrs. Keller. Later they all returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray where dessert was served, gifts opened and the evening spent visiting.

Carmie Bush recently underwent heart by-pass surgery in Columbus. He is reported doing well at this time.

Rose Ragor and Pam Passick and Bryan were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ragor and little son, Tyler Neil, of Mt. Gilgoad.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Brewster were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Brewster and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve DeWeese and Eric, both of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Linkous, Kathleen Stiltner, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Wright, Hernes and J. R. Hankins of Bloomfield, Mrs. John Lowe and Marie Pice of Mt. Vernon and Steve Ulery.

Sunday evening supper guests of Virginia Kinney were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kinney and Mr. and Mrs. Edna Kinney.

THANK YOU NOTE

I would like to thank my neighbors and friends for the acts of kindness shown at the time of the death of my wife, Thelma Edwards.

Tooth Or CONSEQUENCES

Views On Dental Health
by MICHAEL S. ANTHONY, D.D.S.

SAVING AN INFECTED TOOTH

If you have an infected tooth in which most of the supporting bone remains intact, it can probably be saved even if the infection has spread to the pulp or nerve of the tooth. This can be accomplished through root canal therapy. In this procedure, the pulp, the living tissue in the side of the tooth, is removed and the root canal is filled with a material to replace the lost pulp. This is usually gutta percha, a rubber like substance that remains relatively inert, which is cemented into the root canal. After the root canal has been filled, the final step is to repair the opening in the crown of the tooth. The choice of restoration material will depend on the amount of tooth structure remaining as well as the tooth's position in your mouth. Root canal therapy is more expensive than tooth extraction, naturally. However, it is worth any amount of sacrifice to save any of your natural teeth. Any dentist worth his salt will agree that an artificial tooth will never be as good, effective or useful as a natural tooth. Go for it.

Thursday while on her way back to Mt. Vernon Bible College. Melissa was a graduate of Big Walnut High School and was ready to start the second semester of her sophomore year. She was a talented artist and very active in church activities. She will be missed by all who knew her, especially her mother and sister, Amy and brother, Mark. We also extend our sympathy to the Potter family on the death of Mr. Potter.

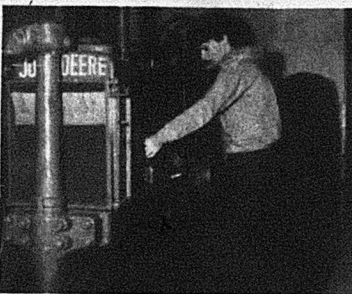

There was a fire that did considerable damage in the house that used to be long to Bessie Hatten. The present owners, the Steelesmiths, have been working on renovating the house for a number of months and now have a lot more work to do.

Friday evening the Big Walnut Intermediate School held a dance. Highlights of the evening included Paige Easter, dressed as Madonna, who served as Mistress of Ceremonies, and some interesting break dance exhibitions. It sounded as though people had a better time than that of dance usually produces.

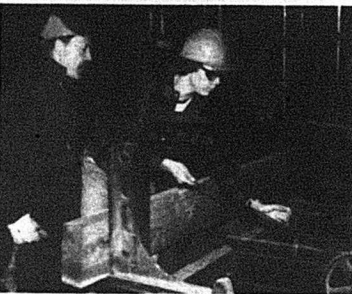

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Johnson report a large flock of robins were congregated in their yard this week. The robins may have had the wrong weather forecaster. Of course, we know that some robins do stay all winter but those in big groups may be migrating.

Ruth Baird, who is also an avid birder, says she used 200 pounds of bird feed in January. Ruth and Price who live out east on Center Village Road have seen large flocks of horned larks foraging for food.

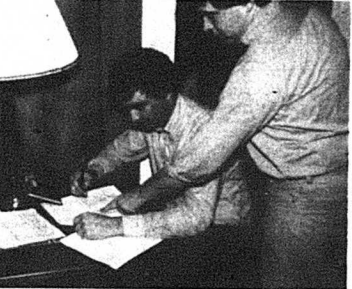

The FFAers were really burning the midnight oil to get the state contest. So much so that one mother even called the police to find out where her son was. Turns out he was safe and sound in the Vo Ag room with his advisors, Mr. Kissing and Mr. Gratz, and a few hardy other students until 5 a.m. I hope all of the efforts of the FFAers prove to be rewarding.

Up Marengo Area Way

by Mary E. McCurdy

Did the ground hog see his shadow or didn't he? With 8" of snow how could he get out of his hole? Oh well, anyway we will have six more weeks of cold weather.

Saw in paper where garden seed was on sale, so maybe everyone should think about garden planting and his cold weather will go away.

Sibyl Lewis says she is ready to go out and mow snow. She wants to get out on that mower. Can anyone beat that thought? As far as I'm concerned, as long as I don't have to go out in it, I can't say white and get it all over with say we can have spring and have our nice weather.

I want to extend sympathy to my cousins, William and Marie Hoek of Johnstown, on the death of their son, Mike. Also sympathy to the families of Evelyn Myers and Cecil Belcher.

I missed a birthday in January and probably missed more I don't have on my list. Happy birthday, Mildred Adams. Also happy birthday to Mary Jane Houck on Feb. 1.

Hope everyone survived the month of January without much trouble. I'm one who is so glad it is over with. It started off with me having bladder infection, then my grandson David got hit in eye while playing basketball, my grandson Chad had his tonsils out, my furnace went out, Davis got hit in mouth while playing basketball and broke a tooth, my refrigerator went bad and I had to get a new one, my grandson Brandon was sick for a week with a bad cold, John's mower broke down while he was plowing snow, and last but not least, the pump went out on my washer. Now, can anyone beat that in a family for one month? I haven't heard of anything else in the family, so I guess starting a new year wasn't so good. I guess I'll just say "better days ahead."

Visitors of Mary E. McCurdy, Lori and Brandon during week were Charles L. Myers, Delbert Snyder, Brenda Snyder, Mike and Juanita Witt, and Willie McCurdy.

I want to wish good luck to Gordon and Sara Ulrey on opening their lawn and garden business in Sunbury. They moved it from Marengo. I guess Sunbury isn't that far from Marengo. Glad to hear Bill Keen is out of the hospital. I want to wish Elmer Temple a speedy recovery. Hope everyone has a safe week. May God bless you all.

Bien's applications were also scored based on the scope of his experiences; inventory of related tools and supplies; net worth statement; approved practices; skills and/or competencies gained; related activities; FFA, school, and community leadership activities; project descriptions; and supporting evidence. Both Jennie Hildreth's secretary book and Mary Hale's treasurer book earned third places. Jo Bell's reporter book earned a fourth. All three books received gold ratings.

The secretary's book was graded on neatness, the composite of summer activities, record of correspondence and attendance, minutes of meetings, and the percentage of participation among members and officers.

The treasurer's book was scored on individual member records, the record of receipts and disbursements for the year, and special project summaries, along with neatness and permanence of the records.

The reporter's scrapbook was judged on the number of articles printed in newspapers, magazines, and newsletters, neatness, and creativity.

Those placing in the top three of any of the award areas in the district will receive a specially designed trophy from the state association. First place winners will also receive a check for $25.

Bob Nichols Is Treasurer of Delaware Mutual

Directors of the Delaware County Mutual Insurance Company and the Delaware County Insurance Agency, Inc., 35 E. Granville St., Sunbury, have appointed Robert Nichols, 235 Hill St., Sunbury, as director and treasurer.

Manager Glenn Ballinger reports Nichols fills the unexpired term of Clyde R. Cochran who retired Jan. 1, after 24 years of service with the company.

Nichols is a member of the Sunbury Council and previously served as Village clerk. Bob is a former member of the local fire department and was clerk of the fire board for 20 years.

Nichols is a lifetime resident of the community and has many years of business experience as former manager of Celar (Sunbury) Lumber Company. He is currently with the purchasing department of The Nestle Company here. "His knowledge and experience in business and government is a valuable addition to the companies," Ballinger says.

Nichols is a member of the Board of Zoning Appeals of Genoa Township, Delaware County, Ohio at 7:30 P.M. on the 18th day of February, 1985 at the Township House to hear the application of Thomas and Vivian B. Harvey requesting a variance of Section (F) 1 of the Zoning Code from the side yard requirement of not less than twenty (20) feet from each side lot line to twelve (12) feet for construction of a building on the lot at 4500 Sunbury Road, Galena, Ohio.

Scot Basketball Team Keeps Up Drive for Title

by John Kelley

With a strong comeback against Cardington under its belt, Highland is in a drive for the Mid-Ohio Conference crown—defeated Fredericktown 57-30 last Friday on the Freddie court.

Fighting Scots are now 12-4 overall and 9-2 in the league, two games ahead of Crestline. Fredericktown dropped to 4-6 in the MOC, 8-7 on the season.

Highland built up a 15-point lead before the Freddie finally scored. That occurred at the 6:01 mark of the second quarter.

"It was a solid performance with the exception of the third quarter," said head coach Dick Heath. It was then Fredericktown came within six points before the Scots "took control, they realized the situation and moved," added Heath.

Rob Linkous, 6-foot-6 senior center, was the top scorer and rebounder for the game. He pumped in 21 points and pulled down 14 boards.

Brad Duncan was next with 20 points. These two were backed by Bill Deekling with 4, Matt Fitzpatrick with 4, Jim Gray with 9 and Al Thompson with 1.

Highland had a 70 percent effort at the free throw line and 44 percent in the latter category. Their best quarter as they were 7-12 for 58 percent.

Fredericktown's leading scorer was Mike Strey with 11. The Freddie were 63 percent at the line and only 20 percent from the floor.

Scots outscored their guests 52-21. They also had the better Offensive Efficiency Ratio (OER) with an .82 reading to the Freddie's .67.

In the reserve contest, Highland won 55-40 to break a five-game losing streak. They are now 2-4 in the MOC, 2-14 overall.

Thump Cardington

On Tuesday, Jan. 29, Highland manhandled Cardington by a 72-49 score at Sparta.

Duncan swished in 23 points and Linkous chipped in with 17 as the Scots pulled away in the second quarter.

Thompson added 14 points to the cause with Fitzpatrick scoring 8, Deekling and Gray 4 and Al Thompson with 1.

Highland had a 70 percent

Shawn Weikel 2, Linkous also hauled down 10 rebounds—also Highland won 30-21—and Duncan helped out with 8 boards.

"The intensity level was better," said Coach Heath. "They played harder."

Scot futures took one on the chin, losing 53-36.

Highland travels to Northmor this Friday, a team they beat 52-27 earlier in the season. This past Tuesday, the Scots hosted Mt. Gilead. The Knights are 3-6 in the MOC, 3-11 overall while the Indians are 1-6, 3-8.

JV's Battle Alder, Come Up Shy In OT

by Bob Kennedy

To lose a see-saw game because you just couldn't hit those all-important free throws at the crucial time is never pleasant.

So it went Saturday night at the high school gym as the Big Walnut reserves lost for the fifth time in succession, this time to Jonathan Alder, 46-45 in overtime.

The Eagles of Bill Adams now stand at 1-11 in the Central Buckeye League and 3-13 on the year. Friday night, they met Dublin in Sunbury beginning at 6:30 p.m. This past Tuesday, BW traveled to Buckeye Valley for a make-up game.

The Pioneers got off to a quick start in the first quarter by taking an 8-2 lead with 3:10 on the clock. Dwight Lohr's baseline power move at 4:42 was the only marker for the Eagles during the spurt.

BW came to within a pair as Lohr and Bob Rhodes hit from outside before JA went back up by seven, 13-6, near the end of the period.

Then the Eagles lit dynamite under themselves and held their own. Mike Tutorow hit a second jumper at 4:46 to bring BW within five, then two David King back cuts, a rebound by Lohr, and a free throw from David Parsio put the home team up by two at the half, 15-12.

Third quarter was action packed for both teams but more so for Alder. The Eagles went ahead by four twice in the early stages of the period on short jumpers by Rhodes, but eventually lost the lead on Dave Duncan's three-point play. After BW tied the game briefly, JA went up by as many as six before the quarter ended in their favor, 31-27.

Spurt Costs Eagle Seventh In Second Loss

A scoring outburst cost the Big Walnut seventh grade boys basketball team their second win.

The Eagles of Coach Mick Holly were leading 18-15 when host Bexley totaled 19 unanswered points for a 31-29 win on Tuesday, Jan. 29. BW is now 8-2 overall, 4-2 in the Central Buckeye League.

"It was a lack of concentration," we played bad defense the whole game and had no help," commented Holly. Trailing 24-18 at the end of third quarter, BW "chipped away in the fourth, but we couldn't get over the hump," added the first year coach.

Bill Low was the leading scorer as he tossed in 9 points with a 3-4 effort at the foul line. Jeff Tutorow produced 8 with a 2-4 bonus shooting and Todd Vrancken jumped down 9 boards and Vrancken contributed 6.

The Eagles were scheduled to play Orlentany in the Bexley Junior High Tournament, but that event was called off because of the weather. This past Tuesday, the team traveled to London in a make-up game from Jan. 22.

BWYAA MEETING
Big Walnut Youth Athletic Association (BWYAA) Little League Football meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 12, 7:30 p.m., at the community Lions Club building in Sunbury. Committees will be appointed. All interested persons are urged to attend.

BWYAA President 11F7a

The comeback by the home team came after Alder went ahead by seven, 38-31, with 4:31 to play in the fourth quarter. King started BW on its way with a 15-footer at 4:21 and a 20-footer with the baseline and Rhodes canned a free throw to tie the score 40-40 with 2:30 to go.

The Pioneers then went up by four and some of the partisans started heading for the concession stand. But the Eagles pulled out some last-second heroics as Robinson hit from the baseline and Rhodes drilled a 20-footer with 10 seconds remaining to knot the score at 42-42.

The overtime session belonged mainly to Alder, although BW tried its hand at the dramatic yet again, but simply ran out of time. It was the clutch free throw shooting of John Kaltenbach and Robin Kurta that kept the Eagles at bay for the final tally.

After the game, Adams commented, "One of the Alder players came up to me when the game ended and said, 'Your guys sure know how to press.' So give our kids lots of credit for their great hustle. I'm happy with the effort, but I wish it could have been a W."

Scoring wise, Kurtz and Brian Macy led BW with 11 each followed by Chris Ellis with nine. Rhodes led all scorers in the game with 15 followed by Robinson with 10.

The problem was the Eagles couldn't hit their free throws down the stretch. They converted only 41.1 percent of their tries (seven of 17) while Alder hit an excellent 72 percent on 18 for 25 attempts.

Rebounding favored the opposing team for the second game in a row, this time by a 27-21 margin. Robinson led the board parade for BW with five. The Eagles also came up with a total of 16 steals in the game, Tutorow leading with five.

Basketball Skills Contest Slated Feb. 23

Youth of the community will have an opportunity to demonstrate their basketball abilities in an upcoming competition.

Big Walnut Area Jaycees will be sponsoring the Tri-Skill contest at the high school on Saturday, Feb. 23. The local event will run from noon until 6:00 p.m.

According to chairman Richard Hill, boys and girls in age groups 8-9-10-11 and 12 are eligible to participate in three different skill areas. Those include shooting, dribbling and passing.

Registration forms can be picked up at all schools in the BW district and must be returned by Monday, Feb. 18.

Each champion will automatically advance to state competition at Reynoldsburg High School on Saturday, March 23. At the local level, adds Hill, trophies will be presented to the first, second and third place finishers.

For more information, contact Hill at 965-2439.

BW Varsity Wrestlers Take Third at North Union

For the second time this season, Big Walnut's varsity wrestling team has brought home a third place tournament showing.

The latest was in the North Union Invitational recently where the Eagles of Mark Matthews scored 131 points.

Highland won its first mat trophy as they scored 166.

Second row, Larry Stalter; Todd Winters; Matt Fonner; Steve Sigman; Tom Southard; Eric Gessler; Jim Cole; Rob Barr and Jed Arrington.

Winning first places at Richwood were Walberry 98nd pounds, and Dawson (112). Second was earned by Gessler (126); thirds went to Millsbaugh (105), Feazel (122) and Don Collier (175) and Waldo (unlimited).

Walberry pinned all three of his opponents on the way to the championship. Geary Strickland of Highland fell at 5-41; Sam Kiehl of Centennial was downed at 1-24 and Ron Beth was trapped at 1-12 in the finals.

Dawson opened with a pin over Brad Miner of NU at 2:47. He went on to collect a 15-2 superior decision against Robert Hogle of Centennial and a 14-4 verdict against Russ Delay of Mechan- icsburg.

Gessler advanced to the finals with an 8-4 decision over Bob Holsinger of Highland and a 4-2 win over Jamie Lako of Inde- pendence. In the championship, the senior lost 12-8 to Frank Pierson of Urbana.

Millsbaugh pinned Todd Wil- hamson at 4:09 of his bout. Feazel also pinned Chris Barker of Kenton at :57 and Collier trapped Dave Wasserbeck of NU at 1:45.

Finishing as runner-up in team scoring were the host Wildcats with 148 points. Following BW were Wehrle (117); Mechanicsburg (109); Kenton (97); Urbana (74); Independence (42) and Centennial (34).

CBL Favorites Are Tough
Gessler was the only BW wrestler to win his match as the Eagles were whipped 66-9 by host Marysville on Wednesday, Jan. 30. Gessler decisioned Joe Jones 9-2 in the 126 pound category.

In reserve action, Millsbaugh beat Mike Behrens by pin in 2:52 and Brad Dean (167) did the same to James Cole at the :56 mark.

Planning a vacation? A few precautions will make it less likely you'll come back to find your home invaded and your treasured possessions missing.

Most burglars are not particularly brave—they prefer to strike a house that's unoccupied. That's why the best way to discourage them is to give your home that "lived in" look, even if you're not there.

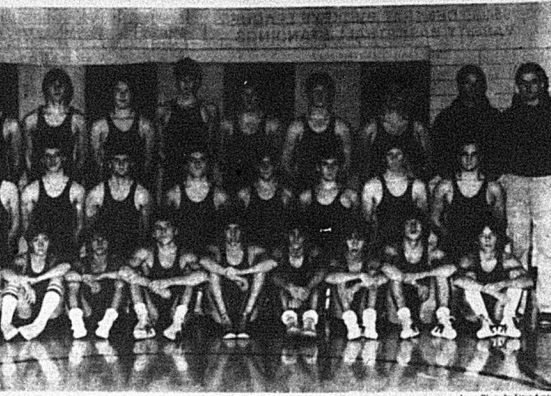

It's smart to invest in timers that will turn on lights, radios, and the television at different times of day and evening, to simulate your ordinary living patterns. Best choice are the timers with variable settings.

Stop mail and newspaper deliveries for the time you're gone. Don't leave empty garbage cans around; store them away. Shades or blinds should be half-drawn, not down. Don't leave any lights on continuously, inside or out.

Most important, make it hard to get in. Be sure sturdy locks are installed on ALL doors and windows. Don't forget basement windows and the door from garage to house.

Protect your belongings with care, simple precautions—and insurance, just in case. We've got the advice you need at

Newsy Notes Of Condit Folks

by Nancy Fuller

Smile! There will be just a few more weeks of this "white wonderful-snowy stuff," and then - spring - and the rains - and the MUD! Can we really be happy? Oh-sure we can. Of course, it depends on where you are - stuck in the snow - or playing in it!

I was sorry to hear that recently little Treval Jackson had been in the hospital a couple of days with an ear infection. So glad he is home and doing well now. He is the son of Keith and Jill Jackson.

Recently, during the cold weather, I heard that Darwin Mitchell drove his grandmother's car to school and lost it on the ice. He is alright, but the car was demolished. He's the youngest son of Jim and Dixie Mitchell, formerly of Center Village.

There is to be a CPR and First Aid course, Feb. 9 at the Sunbury Firehouse.

With Valentine's Day coming up next week, I hope you take the time to remember a loved one!

Kilbourne News Events

by Mrs. Karl Smith

Big Run Farm Bureau Advisory Council met at Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huntley's home on Monday evening with 16 present. The topic discussed was on Politics and the Election, led by Dick Dawson. They also discussed the tax laws. The next meeting will be at Joe and Peg Potter's home.

Ted Colfish, Pinky Sheets and David McCreary went to Gay, Md., snow-mobiling. They left Jan. 23 and were gone until last Monday evening. Ted was sick with the flu while there.

Ray Fuller, a senior at OSU, has been accepted into Medical School at OSU. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fuller, Skinner Road.

Phil and Nancy Colfish, Joan and Audrey were dinner guests of Larry and Jeanne Colfish last Sunday afternoon.

Jim and Betty Link left Tuesday, Jan. 22, to visit their daughter and family, Larry, Pam, Angie and Rodd Hillard at Deloto, Mo. They returned last Tuesday.

Bruce and Laydine Wells and Ryan left Jan. 11 for a vacation in Florida in their truck camper. They went to Disney World and visited his parents, Bob and Betty Wells at Ft. Myers. They were there during the freeze but had a good vacation. They returned home Jan. 31.

The Ohio State University College of Education presented Children's Literature '85, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Hyatt Regency in Columbus. Dr. Charlotte Huck and Dr. Janet (Gephart) Hickman planned the program of Children's Literature Authors and related workshops that attracted 1,000 teachers and librarians from several states. Crist Dunfee, a fourth grade teacher at Brown Elementary School, presented material at one of the workshops. Pam Smith, Special Education teacher at Nardonia Elementary, Summit Co., attended for the Macedonia schools. Mrs. Slattery stayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sheets.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Foshag, Berkshire Rd. entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sheets, Leann and Laura, Glenn and Rebecca Sheets. They also showed slides of their tour of Europe.

Ralph Humes, father of Betty Dawson, has been transferred from Grady Memorial Hospital to Delaware Park Care Center.

Myrtle Maye Bell, 94, formerly of Leonardville Rd., died Tuesday evening at her residence in Mt. Vernon after a long illness. She and her husband, Clarence, were former owners of the Deek Dairy, West William St., Delaware. She was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Surviving are a grandson and two great-grandchildren. Her husband, Clarence, died in 1952, and a son, Robert, died in 1983.

MOM'S Club had a breakfast Saturday morning for their husbands at Chuck and Lorraine Dudas' home, with 22 present. The social committee prepared the breakfast for 8:30 a.m. There were 11 door prizes given. They played games and stayed until about 1:30 p.m., all having a good time.

Sixty attended the lasagna supper Saturday evening at the Kilbourne U.M. Church. Salad and dessert were served with the meal. The committee in charge were Marlene and Althea Yarwood, Marie Langford, Ester Anderson, Jean Hightower and Bob Poole. Group singing followed by Diane Williams and Rod Harp. Pastor Hugh Hubbard showed slides of their trip to the Holy Land. Roger and Jacque Mack were in charge of the nursery.

Dick and Sharon Sively returned from a week's cruise in the Caribbean, Saturday evening. They stopped and toured the island of St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John in the Bahamas. They enjoyed the beaches there, and shopped. They left from Miami on the S.S. Norway. There were shows on the ship they enjoyed. Dick won the cruise from the Super Coot Seed Co. They really enjoyed the beautiful blue sea and warm temperature.

A son was born to Tom and Sharon Cole, 590 County Rd. 24, at Grady Memorial Hospital Feb. 2. He weighed 10 lbs. 14 oz. and was taken to Children's Hospital with respiratory problems. They have named him Jason Allen and wish him a speedy recovery. He is the grandson of Jack and Mildred Cole, 8628 Todd St. Rd., Sunbury.

Saturday evening, Karl and I went to Phil, Ella and Brian Smith's for ice cream and cake to celebrate Brian's second birthday, which was Friday and Karl's which was Wednesday. We watched Brian play and saw the OSU basketball game.

Carl Reida Earns Eagle Scout Honor

Carl Reida

Carl Reida, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reida of 3730 Patrick Road, has earned the highest advancement award the Boy Scouts of America offers to Scouts, the Eagle Award.

Reida was presented the award at ceremonies held Sunday, Jan. 27, at St. Paul Neumann Catholic Church on SR 37. Matthew Ackerman, Central Ohio Council District Executive, presented the award and asked Reida's mother to pin the badge on her son.

Those in attendance included family members, friends, fellow Scouts (including several of Eagle rank), troop committee members and leaders including Reida's present Scoutmaster, who presented Carl to the court, and his former Scoutmaster, Bruce Young.

A member of Sunbury United Methodist Church Troop 247, Reida is one of approximately 2 percent of all Boy Scouts who obtain the Eagle rank.

Each candidate must earn at least 21 merit badges and successfully complete a community, church or synagogue related service project. Reida earned 24 merit badges and chose as his service project to help beautify his new church building by helping plan and construct flower planters in the parking and walk areas.

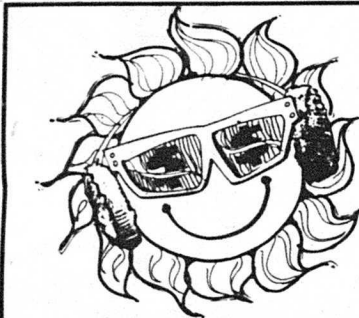

Reida has served his troop as assistant patrol leader, patrol leader, assistant senior patrol leader, and junior assistant Scoutmaster. He was awarded the Ad Altare Dei religious award by his church in 1983.
