Red Cross Buys Vehicle as Mobile Station

Board of the Delaware chapter of the American Red Cross last week approved the purchase of a vehicle to serve as a mobile first aid station.

Charles Mick, director of Safety Services, and Phil Pearson, director of Disaster Planning, emphasized no United Way funds for programs were used for the purchase of the 23-ft. Grumman motor vehicle, and that privately donated funds were used.

The two said the vehicle will be used at special events throughout the county, at the county fair, and as the primary vehicle of the Red Cross's disaster reaction teams.

The vehicle can be readily converted for local use, Mick and Pearson said.

Pat Powers reported the Red Cross blood program has collected 749 units of blood to date, out of the first six months goal of 1,373. Next visit is Apr. 24 at the Sunbury United Methodist Church.

Director Richard Snouffer reported a certificate of Excellence for its 1983 Emergency Relief campaign. Snouffer praised the board and county residents who contributed to the special fund, designed to help disaster victims throughout the United States.

The Delaware chapter has handled 66 cases in its source to military and veterans program since last July 1, compared to 43 at this time last year. And, the Delaware chapter has assisted victims of 16 fires since last July 1, compared to ten last year.

Drive Vehicle From Datsun Lot

Thieves apparently drove a 280Z Datsun off the lot at Datsun North, 8645 U.S. 228, Monday afternoon, according to a report by Dep. D. Coakley. Manager William Denney said four subjects drove onto the lot in their car about 1 p.m., and parked next to the 280Z near the rear of the building. One subject placed a dealer's tag on the 280Z, got in it and drove off, with the other vehicle following. Denney valued the Datsun at $15,000.

Grady Rep Speaks to BW Chamber

Mrs. Cassie Fryman, director of Volunteer Services at Grady Memorial Hospital in Delaware, will be the featured speaker at tonight's Big Walnut Area Chamber of Commerce meeting.

Cassie will talk about the Meals on Wheels program the hospital operates.

Chamber president Bob Doman reports all chamber members and prospective members are welcome to attend the meeting, which begins at 8 p.m. at Mr. Tom's Country Fixin's Restaurant.

Kindergarten Registration Is Next Month

Pre-registration for kindergarten students for the coming school year will be held in April. Parents of the students are asked to stop by either Big Walnut Elementary or the Southern Elementary the week of Apr. 9 through 13 or Apr. 16 through 19. The child's birth certificate will be needed.

In order to begin kindergarten, the child must be five by Sept. 30. Kindergarten screening, a process in which the child participates, will be held at the end of the school year. Children do not need to accompany the parent to be pre-registered.

Council To Work on High School Parking

Sunbury Village Council heard a complaint concerning unusual parking at the meeting held last Wednesday night.

Local resident Mike Edwards, Hawthorne Rd. told council that high school students are parking in front of his home, causing congestion and a problem with his mail delivery.

Edwards told council that students park on both sides of the street, creating a very dangerous situation. He remarked that an emergency vehicle would be unable to get through. He added that during the past months, the snow has caused an additional problem.

In addition to the hazard, Edwards said his mail is delayed, as the postman will not make deliveries if the street-side box is blocked. He asked if council could restrict parking during school hours to one side of the street.

Councilman Doug Lauer said that council began looking at parking problems throughout the entire village last year, but the project "got lost in the shuffle during the change-over to the new mayor." He suggested the council temporarily barricade the area on Hawthorne, off SR 37, to give immediate relief to the residents and allow council time to deal with the problem.

Police chief Walt Neace said the action is "definitely a hazard, council needs to pass an ordinance limiting portions of the village to one side parking." He also suggested an ordinance be written to forbid blocking mailboxes. Neace said the entire parking problem should be addressed at once.

Council member Donna Baranek said the situation should be closed for the school year as well as council but added "short of getting up a bandwagon and building them a new parking lot, I don't know what to do."

Councilman Dennis Bell said before anything permanent is done, council should hold public hearings on the matter. He reminded the members that eliminating parking on Letts Ave. has pushed the students into the Gardens.

He said before "we get into restricting parking there, the village should have hearings. I realize homeowners have a constitutional right to park in front of their homes, but they should have a chance to air their feelings."

Mayor Reed suggested placing barricades with "no parking" signs on Hawthorne, and holding a special meeting on Tuesday, Apr. 3 at 7:30 to discuss the parking situation in the Gardens.

Use Of Square

Council received a letter from Rachel Edwards, the librarian of the Community Library, asking council to reconsider the decision to cancel the library's activities on the square for the summer. Council had made the announcement at the first meeting in March to only allow the three flea markets to use the town square this summer, due to damage being done to the grass.

Edwards' letter reminded council that permission for the flea markets has been given to the library by the mayor.

Baranek said that she had talked to Edwards last year and told her at that time the consensus of council was that 2-day events hinder businesses on the square.

Baranek added that Edwards showed her a survey of the businesses involved and no one "really objected" to the events. She added she told Edwards "as directed, that the events would be eliminated. I went along with her survey, myself."

Councilman Adrian Abolins asked if there was any mention in last year's council minutes re: school year will be held in April.

Bell said the library told council the events were to be held for one year. He said he decided to continue them. He said "I realize the events are not as large as the flea markets, but they are a good thing for the village. I said council should limit the use of the square by controlling the number of events."

Bell also added "I'm not picking on the library, I just want to stop the number of events from growing." He said "I foresee problems ahead, already a flea market wants a street closed. We put the brakes on last year." He added that he knew the librarian was informed last year, and that it "looks like she is trying to put mayor and council on the spot."

Following a brief recess, during which council checked the minutes from last year, Mayor Reed said nothing was shown in the minutes banning the library's events.

Bell said that "it seems appropriate to allow the events this year," but asked that the minutes show that next year, the events are banned.

Village solicitor Pete Mann suggested that council ban all events next year, including the flea markets, until the rules and regulations governing the use of the square can be written. He suggested that the five summer events be given preference, since they have been running for several years.

Baranek said she "loves the square" and doesn't want it to be "pestified with 'keep off the grass' signs. She added that the council needs rules, but "can't keep the public off of a public green."

Council approved a motion permitting the use of the square by the library for both the Arts and Crafts Fair and the International Fair this spring.

A further motion, banning all events after Dec. 31, until appropriate legislation can be written concerning the use of the square was also passed. Both passed unanimously.

Other Action

Council heard from a Galena man who is organizing a bike-a-day for Cystic Fibrosis in May. He asked if Old 36 Highway could be closed for the event. Mann suggested the man contact the county commissioners for permission to close the road, talk to the Sunbury and Galena police departments, and submit insurance information to the council.

Roger Neuhager, representing the Big Walnut Area Chamber of Commerce, presented a bamboo palm plant to the council. He also suggested council aerate the water the square following the two summer flea markets to improve the village square.

Tom Herritt, representing the BSG Fire Association, asked council for a long term lease on the old fire truck. He said the association is interested in restoring the truck to be used in parades. Bell remarked that the "council is very sensitive about the truck" and noted a previous conflict regarding it.

Baranek also noted bad feelings regarding the truck. She said her committee, the parks and recreation committee, would discuss the issue with the association.

Council heard the first reading of the ordinance that will decide the rezoning request for the land west of the square from residential to commercial. The Community Library has expressed an interest in building a new building there.

Ken Crowl, Board of Public Affairs, reported the backwash water project is nearly completed. He said the work should soon begin on the new water tank. He asked Mann to begin the bid process for work that needs to be done to the water storage tanks.

Clerk-treasurer Becky Joy Hayes told council that the permanent appropriations measure that must be in place by Apr. 1 will be delayed as she has not yet received an amended tax certificate from the county auditor. She said she has been asking for the certificate since Jan. 15, but has yet to receive it. She said she needs the permanent record from the auditor to do the appropriations.

Bob Nichols, council member, reported the fire board has a resident of Sunbury to serve on a building committee for the fire district. He said each political entity will have one representative on the committee.

Councilman Cliff Cook said council has received a report from Stults and Associates on the Bike Path project. He gave no details.

Council went into executive session to discuss two lawsuits, one dealing with the lawsuit against the village filed by Mr. Terry Warchol, coordinator, and Mrs. Gary Gilbert opposing rezoning of the Greenwald property, the other, the suit by Black Hawk Golf Course against the rail, challenging the possible sale of the railroad right-of-way, through the golf course.

County Clean-Up Plans Set

This year's countywide volunteer clean-up campaign will take place on Saturdays, Apr. 28 and May 5, according to Delaware county's Office of Litter Control.

Warchol, coordinator, reports Gov. Celeste has proclaimed the week of Apr. 28 through May 5 as Clean Up Ohio Week. The observance, he says, helps to show off community pride and increase awareness of Ohio's litter problem.

Warchol says any group of at least four individuals or more must pre-register with his office if they wish to participate in the county clean-up. "They will receive information on how the clean-up will operate and on the nearest collection site," Warchol reports.

"All people are encouraged to help make our county a cleaner and nicer place to live," he adds. For further information on the county's Clean Up Ohio Week, persons may contact Warchol at his assistant, Bea Haynes, at the Delaware county Health Dept., 548-7313, ext. 295.

Steal Tools From Genoa Business

Thieves pried open a front door at the Cahill Cement Contractors, Inc., building, 6159 Maxtown Rd., Thursday night and stole $2,436 in tools. Mike Cahill told Dep. T.M. Brown he found the breach when he went to work Friday morning. Brown also reported entry was made into a neighboring building, 6159 Maxtown Rd., but nothing was reported taken.

The Public Utilities Commission (PUC) ruled 3-1 Tuesday, Mar. 20 to deny the requests for toll free service, saying that the cost was too high to justify changing the exchange.

The Mar. 20 meeting will be to discuss further action, as the group has 30 days to file for a rehearing or to take the matter to the Ohio Supreme Court.

The public is invited to attend.

Big Walnut Okays '84 Appropriations

Big Walnut Board of Education approved the 1984 permanent appropriations measure at a special meeting Monday night.

The appropriations measure totals $4,946,577 and allows for a carryover of $156,900. The board has said in the past the carryover is necessary to meet the first payroll of the new calendar year.

The appropriations measure reflects a reduction of classroom teachers, some repairs to buildings, as well as capital outlay and some additional expenses.

Superintendent Dr. Richard Miller noted that the appropriations measure first submitted to the board reflected cuts in some categories from the totals actually spent last year. The measure that was approved reflects even greater cuts.

Clerk-treasurer Sue Beardsley told the board the district has received the first half real estate settlement from the county auditor. She estimates the total will be $128,000 more than last July's certification, but noted it can change before then. She said this is not certified by the auditor yet.

Dr. Miller said that while the district may receive the $128,000 more than last year from personal property, any increase will be offset by losses through the rollback process, and from annual reductions in personal property tax. Dr. Miller said that the district will receive an amount closer the $110,000, than Beardsley estimate, which only considers real estate taxes.

In other business, the board approved the 1984-85 school calendar, as well as several changes in this year's school schedule.

Superintendent Dr. Richard Miller announced that Monday, Apr. 23, will be a weather day make-up day as will Friday, June 8. He said that the district will celebrate Monday, May 28 as Memorial Day, so as to be out of class on the same day the village holds the annual flea market.

Equitable Federal Reports Annual Meeting

Equitable Federal Savings and Loan Association held its annual meeting last Wednesday, Mar. 21, at its main office in Lancaster.
 In his report to the members, president Carl Hester stated that gross revenues increased to $68,766,031 in 1983, bettering the 1982 results by 163 percent. Net income was $1,386,563 raising retained earnings to an all time high of $8,521,797. Equitable's assets rose to over $711,000,000 with deposits totaling $619 million.
 Hester attributed these increases to improved revenues, significant bond portfolio income, continued profitable operations in the secondary mortgage market, successful deposit acquisition programs and improved loan portfolio yields and operating efficiencies as well as several favorable mergers and acquisitions.
 Net retail deposit gains, exclusive of mergers and acquisitions, exceeded $40 million in 1983, an increase of almost 26 percent and, for the second straight year, a factor significantly above the industry's performance," Hester reported.

its merger and acquisition activities in 1983 by adding two Chilli-cotte offices purchased from Mid-America Federal Savings and Loan Association and four offices purchased from First Federal Savings Bank of Cleveland. Three of the four offices are located in northwestern Columbus and the other is in Chillicothe.
 Equitable also merged the four offices of Citizens Federal Savings and Loan Association of Marysville. These offices are located in Marysville, Delaware, Plain City and Green Meadows.
 The planned growth program that Equitable began in 1982 and continued in 1983 was both the cause and effect that put it into a position to take advantage of the several opportunities that presented themselves in 1983," Hester disclosed. "Actually we are about a year ahead of the board's and management's projections."
 "However, this rapid growth brought home the need for a dedicated operations facility. We were fortunate to locate a large building right next door to our headquarters. Phase one of this renovation project was completed at the end of 1983 with the installation of a Burroughs 6800 series large main-frame computer and support areas. We are quite pleased with the vastly improved data processing capabilities and our ability to rapidly respond to customer inquiries," Hester stated.
 "Phase two is underway with a completion date scheduled for August 1984. Virtually all of our operations-oriented personnel will then be housed in one facility which will greatly enhance one of our prime goals this year, to provide the very best customer service in our market areas."
 "Because the cost of brick and mortar facilities has become so expensive, we are researching other methods of delivering service to our customers including off site locations of our automated teller machines. We will permit the customer to make both deposits and withdrawals with either their Anytime Banking Card or a card which works through either the Plus or the new Money Station network," Hester announced.

 Proceeding with his report, Hester said, "We continued our active solicitation of mortgage loans throughout the state with 1983 originations totaling $72,100,000. Equitable's Adjustable Rate Mortgages which are available as either one, two, three, or five year adjustments proved popular with 78 percent of our current mortgage loans being in these rate sensitive instruments."
 Responding to a question from the floor, Hester stated, "Our plans to convert from a mutual to a publicly held stock association continue. Our preliminary numbers have been submitted to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and a 'stub audit period' is scheduled for mid-1984. Assuming timely FHLB board approval, we anticipate that the stock will be available in the fall of this year."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

By Dick & Garre DeVore

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Did you ever wonder where, how and when the strange custom of April Fool's Day began? Here's the story...

It did not originate in our land. The tradition dates back for more than 400 years. It began in France after the adoption of the Gregorian calendar in 1564. Prior to then, the New Year celebration began March 21 and ended on April 1. Some people continued to celebrate New Years on April 1 instead of January 1 after the adoption of the new calendar in 1564. Those people, in the language of those days, became known as April fools. From France, the custom spread to England and became a popular jokester day in the 1600's...

To relieve the tension in the turmoil of our times, occasional hours for good, clean, harmless fun and laughter is helpful. The thought reminds us of what Ella Wheeler Wilcox wrote - "Laugh and the world laughs with you. Weep and you weep alone - For the sad old earth must borrow its mirth. But has trouble enough of its own!"

Tax-Deferred Retirement Savings Is For Everyone!

Be sure Yours Is Bank Safe.

Now every wage earner-including those covered by a company pension-can have his own tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account.

In fact, anyone under age 70 with earned income-even a part-time worker-can take advantage of a tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account.

A tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account can add diversification and supplement a company pension plan and you can continue your contributions regardless how many times you change jobs.

You can contribute up to $2,000 a year and if your spouse earns $2,000 or more, the total family contribution can double to $4,000 annually. If one spouse is not employed, you can open a Spousal Individual Retirement Account and you can contribute $2,500 annually. Not only do you reduce your current Federal income taxes, you earn tax-deferred interest on your contributions.

Your independent hometown bank offers you the option of a variable or a fixed interest rate for 18 months. Stop in and ask for our current interest rate.

The earlier you make your contributions the greater your tax-deferred earnings will be. This chart shows the growth of an Individual Retirement Account based on a 12% daily compounded annual interest rate with a once a year deposit. Amounts and interest rate are only assumed and are not guaranteed.

Springtime is just around the corner (so the calendar says, if not the weatherman) and with spring cleaning comes the joy of Care to Share has recipes for making spring cleaning a little easier.

Most of these hints come from a book put out by the Pasadena, Cal. Art Alliance as a fund raiser, All Things Wise and Wonderful, a Big Little Book Of Helpful Hints. A few general rules about stains are to blot up the stain first as much as possible, always use the mildest possible stain remover first, and if in doubt, get the stain remover on a seaming or hidden place first to make sure the fabric and dye are not affected. The longer a stain is in the fabric, the harder it is to remove.

so try to treat it as soon as possible. Many stains will come out with normal washing or dry cleaning.

Ballpoint pen ink should be sponged with rubbing alcohol. Washable fabrics should then be washed to remove any ink that is left. Non-washables should be sponged with a solution of 1 tsp. mild detergent in 1 cup water. Another method is to try spraying the stain with sour milk or vinegar and milk, then repeat. To remove grease stains from rug, brush baking soda or cornmeal lightly through the carpet pile, allow to stand overnight, then vacuum. Or try a paste of lemon juice and cornmeal. Some spray detergents and laundry pre-treatments have special grease removing chemicals.

To remove pet stains from rug, immediately apply a solution of 1 cup water, 1/2 cup ammonia and 8 oz. cold water. Let stand until bubbling stops, then sponge area with fresh water. Other methods are to dose the pet stain with carbonated water or quinine water and allow to dry, or try spraying the area with a solution of white vinegar and cold water.

Blood stains can be removed by soaking the fabric in cold water immediately, then washing as usual. Non-washable fabrics should be sponged with cold water then with 1 tsp. detergent to 1 cup water. If these methods don't work, try 1 T. ammonia in a cup of water, follow by sponging with 1 cup white vinegar in 1 cup water. If you notice any color change after using the ammonia solution.

Red wine stains can be removed by sponging the soiled area of the tablecloth or napkin across the sink and pouring boiling water through the fabric from a height of at least 2 or 3 feet. The greater the distance, the better (this one sounds a little tricky, maybe it's better to try the other methods first). If stain persists, try naphtha soap, or boil the stained portion in milk before laundering. Other methods to try include coarse salt or table salt, or sponging the stain with alcohol before laundering. If the wine is spilled on a rug, try saturating the area with carbonated water, then sponging up with paper towels, stomping to remove moisture.

Lipstick can be removed from table napkins with rubbing alcohol. Also try hardening the area with ice, then scraping off. If this doesn't work, then try lighter fluid to remove the remaining stain. Another method is to put salad oil on the stain, then launder.

Grass stains can be washed out in naphtha soap and cold water. Candleswax and gum can be removed by first hardening the area with ice and then scraping off with a blunt knife. To remove

To remove rust stains from a white fabric, make a paste of cream of tartar and hot water. Let stand for five minutes before laundering. For colored fabrics, saturate the stain with lime or lemon juice, cover with salt, and set in the sun. Launder and repeat if the stain persists.

To remove stains from Formica counters, make a paste of baking soda and water, apply to the stain, leave on a minute or two and rub to remove. This won't scratch the surface.

Put a dry sponge in vegetable drawer or crisper to absorb moisture.

Keep rolls or toast hot longer by placing a piece of aluminum foil under the napkin in the basket. To reheat rolls, put them in a wet brown paper bag and place them in the oven.

For failed flavors in salad dressing, mix the seasoning with vinegar first and then add the salad oil. The oil coats the herbs and traps the flavor.

Wash strawberries before removing stems, to prevent loss of juice.

Cover leftover olives with salad oil to help them keep fresh. A teaspoon of sugar will help eliminate odor in a bowl of marigolds.

To renew an old broom, dip it in a pan of boiling water with baking soda added. Dry in the sun.

Thermos bottles lose sour smell when soaked in baking soda water.

Baking soda is generally a good method to remove odors. To remove odors from carpets or furniture, sprinkle a little baking soda on area, gently rub into pile, then vacuum.

To remove gum from hair try witch hazel, olive oil, egg white or peanut butter.

To keep baskets from drying out, clean with solution of 40 percent castor oil and 60 percent alcohol.

For bee or wasp stings, apply baking soda dampened with water or mud. It is amazing how fast this works. (I know, we have plenty of wasps around our house.) Rub mosquito bites with wet soap to stop the itching.

If you need a little peace and quiet while you are trying out all these great hints, make a batch of "Super Clay" for your kids.

Joyce Stockwell gave me this recipe, and my 2 1/2 year-old has been having the time of his life with his new clay. This recipe really saves money as it makes a lot more than the clay you buy, plus it doesn't dry out as fast in case it gets lost.

Super Clay
3 cups flour
1 1/2 cups salt
2 Tbsp. cream of tartar
3 cups water
3 Tbsp. vegetable oil
Food coloring

Roush Has 'Precious Moments' Collection

Roush Hardware, 629 S. State St., Westerville has been appointed a "Precious Moments" collectors center. Mel Kenner, Roush's General Manager announces.

The appointment is to be celebrated with a special program Sunday, Apr. 1 at 2 p.m. Invitations have been sent to area collectors and an invitational advertisement will admit collectors or interested persons to the special event Sunday. (See ad in today's News.)

The entertainment will feature a special video presentation featuring Sam Butcher, creator of the "Precious Moments" collection. The porcelain figurines, well known collectibles, have become popular throughout the nation. Stories of the "Personalities behind the Porcelains" will be told and inspirational songs by the "Spirit of Life" will entertain the group.

Being a "Precious Moments" collectors center, Roush Hardware will offer a selection of over 200 different collectibles, "Nancy Jonard, manager of Roush Gift Department explained. "The new 1984 'Precious Moments' collection will be on exhibit Sunday."

Mint flavor (optional). Stir dry ingredients in a pan.

Add liquids and coloring; blend well. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until dough pulls away from pan or until it can be squeezed without feeling sticky. Knead when cool.

The mixture looks like lumpy mashed potatoes, but becomes smooth when you knead it.

For bee or wasp stings, apply baking soda dampened with water or mud. It is amazing how fast this works. (I know, we have plenty of wasps around our house.) Rub mosquito bites with wet soap to stop the itching.

Tribute to My Mother, Claire Linnabary

by Maxine Longshore

Today, Mar. 24, I bade farewell to my mother and best friend. It seems unbelievable to me that she is gone after having had her 96th birthday. She was 96 years old. Something about the aged deludes one to believe that they will always be with us. She was always there when I needed her.

Mom has been of great concern to her family for the past 3 1/2 years since we lost Dad, and has been in my thoughts constantly. She was my confidante; one I knew would never betray me; one who was on my side regardless; any misunderstandings between us were quickly resolved. She was the matriarch of our family and treated her in-laws the same as she did her own. She never gave advice except when she felt we needed it! She had a terrific sense of humor.

I will cherish her memory forever.

I will miss her!

Service Was Wednesday for Claire Linnabary

Ersa Claire (Patridge) Linnabary, 96, died last Saturday evening at Northview Nursing Home in Johnstown. She was formerly of 15791 East St. Rt. 37, Sunbury.

Surviving are: daughter, Mrs. Russell (Maxine) Longshore, of Sunbury; two sons, Robert G. of Sunbury and J. Donald, of Centerville; ten grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren. Service was held Wednesday afternoon at the DeVore Funeral Home in Sunbury with Rev. Ronald R. Law officiating. Burial was made in Trenton Cemetery.

Birthdays coming up are Kenneth Reed on April 2 (now he is as old as my sister Mima); Margaret (Peg) Burkley on Monday; Rick Reed on Tuesday; and Marie Lacey next Wednesday. So, all have a happy day.

Our callers this past week were Rev. Sue Ann and Katy Elencov, Mildred Griffith, Mima Lowe, Rick Rogers, Jo Lee and Mary Reger White. Of course, Virginia Helwig and Beth came Friday night. They said lots of water and it was lapping at the sides of the road. The Blanchard River really covers the fields during a flood. Going home Sunday afternoon they hit sleet at Findlay.

The lights were out in our area, including Africa Road, Sherman Road, Cheshire Road, South 3B & K Road, and Rome Corner. Glad it was not raining too much for we would have had some wet basements without the sump pumps.
