Grady Auxiliary Names September Volunteer Month

Members of the Grady Memorial Hospital Auxiliary have designated September as volunteer month.

Membership Committee Chairman, Julie Daily, says the theme for the month "Happiness is a Grady Volunteer" will be used on posters in the hospital, and on badges the volunteers will be wearing through the month.

In addition, volunteers are planning a booth at the Delaware County Fair to inform interested fairgoers about the volunteer program and encourage new people to join.

Daily says the volunteer program at Grady currently needs about 55 new members to fill services in the soon to be opened new wing of the hospital.

Those interested in the program may contact Grady at 548-7800 or 369-8711.

United Way Reports Fall Campaign Plans

United Way campaign chairman John White told board members Thursday he's expecting this year's goal to be about 6 percent above last year's. "I'm going for $55,000."

White reported the goal-setting committee will meet Sept. 12 to finalize the goal for this year's campaign, which, he says, will be structured similar to last year's. "We're going with the same organization (hopefully), adding an agri-business category."

White added that this year's theme will be that of the national campaign - "People Helping People." He mentioned that the school division and Kroger's in Delaware had already begun their campaigns. While representative from Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric gave a tentative schedule of planned events as well as his goal hopes. Starting with the goal meeting, he named dates through Dec. 3, and explained, "we're going to be in and out of the campaign within these dates, before the busy Christmas season."

White reported the Advanced Gifts luncheon is set for Sept. 13, the Grief luncheon, Sept. 14, a booth at the Delaware county Fair during fair week, and then a kick-off event at Mingo Park in Delaware. "We're still working out the details, but I'm looking for a family get-together affair."

White said the countywide campaign will use billboards around the community to "make people more aware of our campaign," as well as a thermometer at the county courthouse marking progress toward the goal.

This year's chairman said he's planning on four reporting dates - two in October, one in November and the final Dec. 3, with a clean-up period for the follow up campaign afterwards.

Board member Tom Mills, paugh, of Sunbury, reported plans for the 1984 Big Walnut community's United Way campaign. Millspaugh noted the Nestle Co. kick-off will be Oct. 1 and that the local drive will also be active with Big Walnut's Homecoming this fall.

Millspaugh said the Big Walnut community's goal this year is at $22,000, and will be posted in a coffee cup fashion compliments of the Nestle Co.

The local organizer said the Big Walnut Phone-A-Thon is set for Oct. 9, 10 and 11, and that Oct. 15 through 19 and Oct. 22 through 26 will be used for door-to-door solicitation in the community.

"Once again we're working closely with the school personnel and we're looking for a good campaign," Millspaugh summed up.

Vandals Damage Sunbury Rd. Church

Vandals pushed over the piano and organ, and broke a window and two locks at the Maranatha Fellowship Church, 7670 Sunbury Rd., early Monday morning. Pastor Tim Crisafulli reported to Dep. R.L. Brown a member of the church happened by about 1 a.m. and scared what he described as five juveniles, away. No value was estimated on the damage.

Volunteers Collect Cancer Study Info

During the first two weeks of September, a volunteer group of Delaware county residents will call on families to complete the first phase of follow-up work to Cancer Prevention Study II, a large-scale, long-term research project of the American Cancer Society.

The study, the largest of its kind ever undertaken, is examining the lifestyles of more than 1.2 million Americans to learn about possible relationships of cancer to personal and environmental factors such as nutrition, medication, occupational exposures, pollution, low-level radiation, low tar and nicotine cigarettes, and passive smoking.

Though the scientists are not able to report on definitive findings about cancer development and prevention this early in the study," said Dr. William Parker, Chairman of the Delaware Unit, "data from this first follow-up will allow them to make preliminary analyses about potential cancer risk factors in our lifestyles and environment."

Information obtained in this follow-up and subsequent ones will be added to baseline data that already has been collected and computerized, and will enable researchers to begin the process of data analysis. Two other follow-ups are scheduled for September 1986 and 1988.

The first analysis to be obtained from Cancer Prevention Study II was a report on changing smoking patterns among Americans. Presented at the Fifth World Congress on Smoking and Health in July 1983, the report revealed a sizeable decrease in the number of current cigarette smokers. The report, based on preliminary data from CPS II, also showed a switch to filter cigarettes and low-tar brands among smokers.

Cancer Prevention Study II is equal in size but wider in scope than the first Cancer Prevention Study, which was conducted by the American Cancer Society from 1959 to 1965, then extended to 1972.

KIDS Group Forms to Lead Levy Campaign

Steering committee has been formed for the upcoming school issue campaign.

The KIDS (Keep Improving District Schools) Committee will be working for passage of Big Walnut School District's 10 mill operating levy on Nov. 6.

Many community members and several school board members make up the steering committee. They will be meeting periodically during the next two months.

Anyone interested in working for passage of this school issue should contact Joe Tumeo at 963-3010. He will give the name to the KIDS Committee.

Twenty-nine year-old local man died Sunday following a one-car accident Saturday evening on S.R. 61 north of Rockwell Rd. Service was held Wednesday afternoon for Dale Allen "Squirrel" Bernard, 3896 Trimmer Rd., Centerville.

Highway patrol reports Bernard was northbound on S.R. 61 at an apparent high rate of speed when he lost control of his car after cresting a hill. The accident happened about 10:45 p.m. Saturday, and Bernard died at Grant Hospital of head injuries about two hours later.

September Is 9th Month - 'N, O, P, Q' Tags

Clerk Mary Guthrie reminds persons with names beginning with 'N, O, P, Q' that September is the 9th month, and there's to purchase license tags.

Mary operates the Sunbury Deputy Registrar office in the municipal building and reports her hours are 8:30 to 4:30 daily except Wednesday, when hours are 9:30 to 5:30.

Set of passenger car stickers cost $21.50, and Mary reminds purchasers to have their vehicle title and last year's registration with them.

And, she reminds, that if someone other than the owner on the title goes to get the stickers, "he or she must have the owner's power of attorney."

Help Anonymous Launches Drive For Volunteers

Help Anonymous is launching a search for new volunteers this month, according to the group's new Volunteer Coordinator, Rebecca Wheelersburg. Wheelersburg will be conducting her first trainee course with help from the present volunteer staff, she says.

To become a Help Anonymous volunteer, each person must take an eight week training course, says Wheelersburg. Training includes studying communication techniques, such as learning to be "active listener" and learning ways to help the caller express his feelings, according to Wheelersburg. Presentations are given on crisis intervention, and the types of problems a volunteer may have to deal with such as sex problems, alcohol and drugs, depression, suicide and domestic violence. Volunteers also learn about the available local social services, so they can make referrals.

The next training session will be held on Sept. 18 and 19 and there will be both a morning and evening session. Call Help Anonymous at 369-1116 or 548-7324 for more information.

Registration For Fall Is In Full Swing

Voter registration period for the Nov. 6 election is now open, and persons may register to vote at either the Board of Elections office in Delaware or at the Community Library in Sunbury.

Director Virginia Sheets reports persons may register, update their names and addresses, now in time for the election Tuesday, Oct. 9 is the registration deadline.

Election's office will have special hours for the registration period, and will also be registering persons who wish to at the Delaware county Fair booth.

PIC Planners Hear 3rd Quarter Stats

Private Industry Council (PIC) Planning Committee for Delaware county heard third quarter reports from the Employment and Training program at its meeting Aug. 22.

Serving 321 persons the first nine months of this program year, the office reported both youth and adult programs at meetings or exceeding state standards. Through June 30, the office had worked with 110 youth and 191 adults this year.

Fifty percent of the adults in the programs entered employment, with an average cost per employment of $2,666, compared with $5,363 statewide. Average wage at placement for adults was $4.27, and 47 percent of the welfare adults entered the employment force.

Sixty percent of the youth entered employment, with a cost per positive term for youth of $1,265. That compares with a state standard of $1,428.

Total of 99 youth took part in this year's Summer Youth Employment and Training program which operated between June 18 and Aug. 17. Tentative programs for the next program year include: preemployment, skills training, limited work experience, public sector, try-out employment, private sector, on-the-job training, basic remedial education for drop-outs, career exploration, and a special project in cooperation with other agencies.

Tentative adult programs include job skill training workshop, on-the-job training, vocational and technical education, class-size training, basic and remedial education, older workers program.

The planning board accepted the resignation of Rosemary Halter as chairman, and named Gene Peebles to succeed her. Plaque of appreciation was to be presented to Rosemary for her

Secretary of State Will Poll Fairgoers

Secretary of State will be polling people who attend the Delaware county Fair for their opinion on public issues.

The informal poll is sponsored by the Secretary of State and the Delaware County Board of Elections. The board will operate a booth at the Fair Sept. 15-21 to promote voter registration, education, and participation.

More than 60,000 Ohioans have been registered at county fairs since the program began five years ago. Current voters also can change their voting address or make other updates in their registration records at the booth.

The opinion poll, conducted in the form of a mock election, gives everyone a chance to try out the county's voting equipment so that they will feel comfortable when a regular election comes up, the Secretary of State notes.

Questions on this year's mock election booth are: Should our country adopt a national health insurance plan? What area of the federal budget do you think should be cut the most to help balance the budget? (Choose one): A) defense spending, B) Social services (health, infant nutrition, food stamps, housing), C) education.

Should the State Hazardous Waste Site Approval Board be required to obtain local approval of hazardous waste sites before issuing permits.

What is your ideal slate for President and Vice President: Susan B. Anthony and John F. Kennedy, George Washington and Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt, or Martin Luther King, Jr. and Eleanor Roosevelt.

Results of the poll will be released through local news media following close of the fair.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

A doctor can give you a pill for almost any ailment. Aches, pains, disorders can often be relieved but permanent cures rarely result from any pill. Pills at best, bridge a gap in time, from one time to the next. This fact of life is especially true for the thousands of shut-ins in nursing homes, hospitals, state hospitals and bedrooms in many private homes. They live alone and isolated -- even while among other people. Theirs is a sad world. Many of these people need more than pills. They desperately need the concern of other people. They need to know they are not alone in their suffering. Cards, letters and flowers are fine -- but nothing can match a friendly, cheerful personal visit. Through visitation the confined can often strengthen their faith and spirit. If you know some one who is ill, why not extend the kindness of a personal visit -- soon? Why procrastinate? Tomorrow may be too late.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This weekly column is brought to you by the gals of The News staff. Readers are invited to submit recipes or other items they "Care to Share."

by Annabelle Banning

Some time ago I mentioned that during vacation I had come across some interesting recipes from Ozark country (Missouri). Here are some to share with you - some I've tried, others were interesting and thought I'd try later on.

Did you ever cook together?

Tomatoes & Eggs
Select 8 firm ripe tomatoes to fit nicely into a muffin pan. Wash and core each, deep enough to hold an egg. Place in muffin pan and then break an egg into each, cored tomato. Season with pepper and salt and drizzle a little butter over each. Bake 1 hour in 350 degree oven. Serve.

As we know, pioneers seldom let anything go to waste. This time of year there always are lots of unripened tomatoes (which settlers called "Love Apples"). Some were gathered and made into -

Tomato Dill Pickles
Wash and trim any spots of about 30 small green tomatoes and set aside. In the bottom of 4 quart jars (which have been sterilized) place 1/2 head dill, then fill with the small tomatoes. To each jar add a few strips green or red pepper, and a tiny garlic bud. Next put 5 pints water in a granite kettle, add 1/2 cup salt, 1 quart cider vinegar and let come to a full boil. Pour this hot liquid over the tomatoes, and let the other 1/2 head dill on top. Seal hot.

While we're on the subject of green tomatoes, my sister, Virginia Long of Fostoria shared the following "green relish" recipe and which you will note uses all green items.

Green Tomato Relish
Plunge 6 large green tomatoes in boiling water for 2 min., then in ice water 2 min. Peel off skin, core and cut into chunks.

Pare, core, chop 2 large green apples.

Combine with tomatoes, 2 large onions, chopped, 1 large cucumber (pared and chopped), 1 large green pepper (seeded and chopped), 1 small hot green pepper (optional), 1/2 cups cider vinegar, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 Tbsp. mustard seed, 2 tsp. salt, 2 tsp. dry mustard, 1/2 tsp. ground turmeric. In large kettle, bring slowly to boil; lower heat and simmer 1 1/2 hrs. or until thick, stirring occasionally.
Ladle into hot 1/2-pint jars, leaving 1/2 inch headroom and seal. Process 15 min. in boiling water bath.
Will keep in refrigerator about 3 weeks, or store in freezer.
For Tartar Sauce: Mix with mayonnaise, dash garlic salt and Worcestershire sauce.

Since we have quite a few yellow tomatoes this year, I think I'll make this Ozark preserves recipe.

Yellow Tomato Preserves
Early settlers used a lot of the little pear shaped tomatoes to make this truly gourmet food.
To 1 lb. of yellow tomatoes, add enough scalding water to cover, then remove skins and place the tomatoes in a kettle, adding 1 lb. white sugar and 1/2 cup water. Bring to boil, then lower heat and let cook for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in 1 Tbsp. lemon juice, dash of powdered ginger and let simmer till thickened.
Pour into 1/2 pint jars and seal.

When early Americans crossed the Mississippi to settle the Midwest, they no doubt survived on bare necessities, known as "campfire grub." If they found poke (pokeberries), sour grapes, dock, etc., they would make "salads." In a future column I'll give you a recipe for "Pokeberry Pie" that mother used to make - or do some of you happen to have a good "Pokeberry Pie" recipe?

Before homemakers started making individual salads, they would have plenty of "clabber cheese" on hand and would make -

Green Peppers & Smearease
To 1 cups of cottage cheese (smearease), add 1/2 cup thick sweet cream, 1 tsp. sugar, 1/8 tsp. salt and mix well. Wash and remove seeds from 1 large mango pepper and cut into fine pieces. Stir the pepper pieces into the cheese, add 1 tsp. vinegar and chili. To serve, sprinkle a dusting of paprika over the top and garnish with young spinach leaves or lettuce.

This slow recipe was given to me by Idella Cramer, my sister-in-law from Lima. After she had served it recently at a dinner. Once you taste it, you will never want to use any other (that's what most people say).

Idella's Frezer Slaw
14 cups shredded cabbage
2 peppers
2 onions
2 cups carrots
Mix and bring to boil -
1 cup white vinegar
1 cup salad oil (Crisco)
1/2 cups gran. sugar
1 Tbsp. salt
Pour mixture over slaw (while hot) and stir and let stand at least 3 hours. Stir occasionally.
This may be frozen, or will

keep 3 or 4 weeks in refrigerator.

Just this past week, I received this chili sauce recipe from Clarabelle Zachman, of Portage, WI. (where we had visited on vacation). I thought since there seems to be plenty of tomatoes, you may wish to make your own.

Chili Sauce
2 1/2 in. long cinnamon stick
1/4 tsp. whole cloves
5 lb. ripe tomatoes (peeled and cut into chunks - about 10 cups)
1 1/2 cups finely chopped celery
1 cup finely chopped onion
1 c. finely chopped green pepper
1 c. cups cider vinegar
1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar

Simmer 30 minutes longer or until thick as you like. Remove spicebag.
Ladle into hot pint jars. Seal.
Process in boiling water bath 15 minutes.
Makes 4 to 5 1/2-pint jars.

THE FREEWAY SPACE

When you think of "freeway," you probably think of the high speed motorways leading in and out of big cities. But you also have a freeway space in your mouth. When your jaws are in a normal and relaxed position, there's a space between your upper and lower jaws that dentists call "the freeway space." It has nothing to do with traffic, but it has a lot to do with mouth comfort. Whenever full or partial dentures are placed in a patient's mouth, the dentist makes sure the freeway space is not eliminated. This may cause temporomandibular joint (TMJ) problems. Your temporomandibular joints are located on each side of your head, just internal and in front of your ear openings, and are connected to the lower jawbone. If your chewing muscles or the ligaments that control them are over-stretched, too slack, or flamed, or in spasm, this can cause the severe pain in the jaw joint area. If you are feeling any discomfort or pain in your jaw area when you open or close your mouth, have this condition treated by your dentist. From the office of MICHAEL S. ANTHONY, D.D.S., 301 S. Vernon Street, Sunbury. Phone: 965-1090.

Grady Offers Prep Class for Parenthood

Grady Memorial Hospital, 561 W. Central Ave., Delaware, will offer Preparation For Parenthood classes, beginning Sept. 19, at 7:00 p.m. Classes are two hours long, and held every other week. Class size is limited, and registration is required.

The Preparation For Parenthood classes are a series of four prenatal classes, taught by registered nurses, designed for the new or experienced parent. The classes will have information about childbirth alternatives, labor and delivery, and care of the baby, according to Mary Ann Keeler, Director of Public Relations. Keeler says that exercises to help tone body muscles and relaxation techniques will also be taught. She adds that the classes do not take the place of Lamaze classes, but can be taken before or with Lamaze classes.

Another program now offered at Grady Memorial Hospital is the Sibling Class. The class is designed for young children to help them prepare arrival of a new sibling or brother. Children will see where Mom will come to have the baby, where the baby will stay, and learn about the new baby's care and characteristics, Keeler says.

Sibling classes are held twice a month and are recommended for the last 4 weeks of pregnancy, says Keeler. Each child must be accompanied by an adult. The next class will be held Thursday, Sept. 13, at 6:30 p.m.

To register for either the Preparation For Parenthood class or the Sibling Class, call Mrs. John H. Richards, 1765 Creek Rd., Sunbury.

Delaware county Chapter of the American Red Cross will teach classes in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) on Tuesday and Thursday, Sept. 4 and 6, at 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. at the local office, 3 W. Winter St., Delaware.

Two First Aid classes are scheduled in September with the first on Tuesday and Thursday, Sept. 11 and 13 and the second class on Monday and Wednesday, Sept. 24 and 26. Both of these courses are vital for all persons as heart attacks remain the number one killer and accidents at home or work are the fourth leading cause of death in the United States. These courses teach basic information and techniques to be used in emergencies.

Registration for all classes may be made by calling Red Cross chapter at 362-2021 or 248-7380 or by stopping by the office at 3 W. Winter St., Delaware.

News Around Condit

Well, the weatherman was wrong again. It was to be a nice day Saturday - but we had rain here all day. I was making cabbage rolls, baking, and doing tomatoes, using the oven, so the dampness in the house wasn't noticed too much that day.

The fall bowling leagues are starting and most folks around here have to go to the Delaware Bowling Lanes, since the closing last spring of the Westerville Lanes. That's sure a shame, since the Westerville Lanes were a nice place. Maybe someone will build a new one.

Happy birthday wishes are sent to Lee Miller. He celebrated his 37th year on Aug. 16.

Recent guest at the Miller home for a few days, was her sister, Brenda Rhamy and family from Indiana. They all enjoyed the Ohio State Fair that week. Brenda took the Miller children, Kent and Kara, home for the week, where they visited their grandparents and other relatives. Kent was riding the bike and one of their neighbor's dogs bit him, which required about six stitches. Lee and Betty later traveled over to Indiana for the weekend and brought the children home.

Related sympathy is extended to the family of Robert Stoll and family on the loss of his father, Forrest Stoll.

Happy 1st birthday to Tahabitha Thallhuber. Her special day will be Sept. 8. Happy birthday to Daphne Morgenstern, daughter of Steve and Debbie Morgenstern. She celebrated her special day Tuesday with family and friends.

Sympathy is extended to Irene Chudweich and family on the death of her son, Dale. Dale lost his life in an auto accident early Sunday. He was only 29 years old. Don't forget the time change at the Condit Presbyterian Church this Sunday. Worship time is 11 a.m. Also the upcoming smorgasbord will be Oct. 6.

Eagles Unleash Speed To Down Johnnies

Host Tough CCL Foe Hartley Friday

by Steve Kesler

Big Walnut's football team accomplished two things in last Friday's non-league season opener at Johnston.

First and foremost, the Eagles showed they have the quick scoring threat ability and least importantly, they also displayed a knack for losing the pigskin.

In using Number One to perfection and getting by with Number Two, Coach Rolie DeLong's veteran charges deflated an improved Johnnie team, 20-3, before a sizeable crowd in Frank Chambers Stadium.

The locals will have to clean up the fumbling act when Bishop Hartley comes to Sunbury Friday for a 7:30 p.m. contest. The Hawks pounded Hamilton Township 54-7 last week, and they feature fullback David Key and tailback Eric Gudger, who hit paydirt the first three times he put his hands on the football.

Big Walnut beat Johnston for the second straight season, including a 20-yard scamper by running back Keith Butler and a 16-yard pass from quarterback Jim Foley to receiver Todd Lufft for a first down at the 11.

Following the first of two penalties (holding) on BW and an incomplete pass to tight end Jerry Williams, the visitors were in the end zone for the first time this fall. That was achieved when Foley spotted his other receiver, James Hale, alone in the left corner on a 14-yard play with 11:25 on the clock. Mike Cooperider's kick skimmed just under the crossbar.

Johnston was given an opportunity to possibly tie the game as Cooperider lost the ball on a Doug Hollis punt at the 16. After three plays, the Eagles defense held tough and forced the hosts to try a field goal. Jeff Meade's 32-yarder was sure and true with 7:43 left.

On its next possession, BW was on the move again until Foley led the snap from his center. The ball came rolling out of a pile of red and white colored shirts before Johnston's Mike Meadows pounced on the ball at the Johnnie 40.

In the second half, the interchangeable Backfield went to work for Big Walnut. Two plays after the kick-off, Troy Petrie waved bye-bye to the Johnston defense as he high-stepped his way down the left sideline for a 66-yard touchdown. Cooperider capped this outburst with a successful extra point kick at just a little over a minute into the third quarter.

Johnston had the ball for a short time, but the Eagles gave it right back on another punt fumble: this one at midfield. The Johnnies managed to get the ball down the left sideline for an incomplete pass.

Hollis got hold of a 46-yard punt that traveled to the 30 and hit high in the air before landing at the 21. On the very next play, another BW runner, Cooperider, broke open on the same call Petrie got and raced 79 yards into the end zone along the same sideline. A few seconds later, after catching his breath, "Coop" tackled on the final point.

In the last part of the third period, each team decided to play that new game, "Let's Trade Fumbles." Petrie coughed it up at the 24. Keith Butler got it right back on the 31 while on defense and Foley almost lost it again, before recovering on the 30. In all, the Eagles buttingfired the leather six times and lost four of them.

Enough of that negative stuff, there are more positive happenings to report. The defense - with the likes of Rod "Reach Out & Rush Someone" Loffer, Williams, Mike Piper and John Waldo - was a rock all night as it held Johnston to 92 total yards.

Cooperider finished with 4

punts for 163 yards, including backs of 46, 40, 25 and a 56-yard in the fourth quarter that hit a Johnnie on the helmet and rolled into the end zone. The senior was also the game's leading ground gainer with 119 yards in 12 carries while teammate Petrie totaled 9 times for 99 yards.

As a team, Big Walnut amassed 298 net yards, 287 on the ground and 31 through the air. Foley was 2-4 and his counterpart for the Johnnies, Matt Cook, was 2-9. The Eagles had 8 first downs to 4 for the hosts and two 1st flags for 30 yards to Johnston's one for 15.

Eagles, Scots Hope To Work Out Errors

This column returns to these pages with analysis from both Big Walnut and Highland football coaches on what they thought of their respective team's performance last Friday and how they feel about this week's opponents.

Mistakes in a different variety were the thorns in the sides of each squad - the Eagles coughing up the ball five times (losing four) and the Scots being penalized seven times for 85 yards. What makes this even more annoying is the two teams managed to come out on the victory side of ledger.

BW coach Rolie DeLong perhaps put it best, saying, "I thought we were lucky to get out of there (Johnston). Hopefully, we got them all out of the way last week." For the most part, Big Walnut played a good game and three of its players were recognized for their performances. Senior Mike Cooperider was the offensive player of the week for his game-leading 119 yards rushing. 79 of those yards came down in the third quarter. The three-year starter, an all-DeLaware county and Central Buckeye League selection, also had four punts that averaged 48.8 yards. Getting the defensive coordinator in the Johnston backfield all night. The two-year senior letterman led in points with 17 as he finished with five solo tackles, two sacks and one assist.

Willard Hubbard, a sophomore, was voted the reserve player "as he gave us the best look in practice in running both the opponents' offensive and defense" according to DeLong. With this effort, he also earned a spot on the kick-off team. In summing up the Johnston game, Rolie said "they didn't surprise us one bit. We knew they were really improved." In speaking of his team, DeLong talked highly of quarterback Jim Foley, who "had an excellent game." He went on to say that the fumbles and several dropped passes by receivers "hurt us - it took away our momentum. Hopefully, we'll be alright this week." Life on the gridiron doesn't get any easier as the Eagles face a formidable challenge in Columbus Bishop Hartley, picked as one of the favorites to win the Central Catholic League title. "It's a privilege to play them and we're going to see where we're at," Rolie tells. "We are capable of playing with them but we can't make the mistakes we did last week. We've got to minimize those mistakes, keep the ball and sustain our drives. The key will be to control the football."

DeLong lists several standouts for the Hawks. The first is senior offensive-defensive tackle Bob Toy, who goes 6-1, 225-lbs. "We feel he's all-state material at this position and is a very strong young man," adds Rolie. Others include Todd Underwood (6-0, 195-lb, senior linebacker), Pete Foster (5-10, 150 senior quarterback) who "has a good arm and is a running threat," David Key (5-10, 185 junior fullback), "one of the top backs in Central Ohio" and Eric Gudger (6-0, 170 junior tailback), "better off the two backs and the biggest threat to get outside," points out DeLong. Hartley runs out of a straight-T formation with a lot of motion and people crossing over. "That will cause problems if we let it, but I'm hoping the defense will do as good a job as they did last week," he remarked. Remember, the games start a half hour earlier, at 7:30 p.m. - so be sure to readjust your time table. See you at the home opener Friday.

under former Indiana University coach Sam Wyche and a wide receiver in the National Football League for the Kansas City Chiefs and Cincinnati Bengals. He has also coached at several high schools and colleges in Missouri.

A free, high school level soccer clinic will be staged at Sunbury (Ohio) High School on Sunday, Sept. 16. According to spokesman Jane Daly, the clinic is designed for high school age players, both male and female, and coaches. Several prominent coaches, including Jay Martin from Ohio Wesleyan University, will be in attendance. The event is sponsored by the Army College Fund and the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and to register, one can call collect 212-708-6249 or your local Army recruiter.

Division of Wildlife continues its hunter safety course at Mt. Gleahigh School tonight (Thursday) and Friday. Session runs from 6:30 - 9:30 p.m. at school on Park Avenue and registration is required with a limit of 25 persons. Contact Bob Fissell 946-3051 for more details.

Nicklaus led Upper Arlington to a 20-1 dual meet record during the 1954-55 seasons and captained the '56 squad which won the state title. He also was individual medalist that year with a 144, the second lowest 36-hole score in state history.

KEITH BUTLER BREAKS FREE OUTSIDE

Eagle Golfers Savor Treasure on the 'Rock'

by Bob Kennedy

"We were really happy with our school record 151 on Table Rock's front nine."

And although it wasn't the overall school record, Coach Dean Duffey had plenty of reason to be proud of his troops on Aug. 28 in the first-ever meeting between the Golden Eagles and the Red Raiders of Madison County, 151-172.

The Eagles are currently 2-2 overall and 1-1 in the Central Buckeye League.

Co-medalist awards are somewhat rare in high school golf, but even more so when they go to the same team.

Such was the case here as Dave Brehm and Bill Wentz blazed the rather penalty-free front nine with an even-par 36. Close behind them was Dave Charnas with a 39. Scott Counts with a 40, and Jim Holland's 45.

For London, Mike Sakour was his team's low man with a five-over 41. Next in line were Chris Alexander and Chris Coleman with 43's apiece. Mike Quilter with a 45, and Dan Dunkley's 47.

However, in the case of Dunkley and Holland, both of their scores were not entered in the final tally since they carded the high scores of the round for their respective team.

Duffey commented after the victory that his rather veteran squad was "not very consistent. However, once we start doing that we can challenge anyone in the league."

Marysville 170, BW 196. Maybe there's something about playing at the Marysville Country Club that sends shivers up and down the spines of BW golf teams from the past.

Whatever the cause, BW has not fared too well in the previous years at Marysville and this year was certainly no exception.

Troy Wilson of MHS picked up medalist honors on Aug. 20 with a three-over 39 on Marysville's back nine. For the Eagles, Charnas shot 43 to lead the way, followed by Holland's 47, Brehm and Kevin Leymaster each with 52, and Wentz with an 18-over par 54.

Split Triangular

On the calendar, school started Aug. 28, but the athletic competition actually started the day before (Aug. 27), at least for Big Walnut.

They opened the fall schedule with a triangular match against Westerville North and Ulica, losing to the Warriors and defeating the Redskins.

The scores of the match were: 171 for WNHHS, 173 for BW, and 187 for UHS.

All three squads used six-man contingents in playing the back nine at Centerville's Table Rock course. And individual scores were surprisingly low for the first head-to-head competition of the year.

BW's Charnas came away with overall medalist honors (low score of the match) with a three-over par 39. He was followed on his own team by Bill Wentz with a 42, Jim Holland carded a 45, Scott Counts with a 40, and Kevin Leymaster brought up the rear with a 49.

Coming up on the horizon for the Eagles was a match with Jonathan Alder at home this past Tuesday (Sept. 4) and a road meeting with arch-rival Buckeye Valley today (Thursday). Both encounters will be featured in next week's News.

Despite the flags flying in the air at Sparta last week, Coach Gus Marquis was generally happy with his Scots' performance.

"The kids played a real good game and the defense did a great job in shutting River Valley down," he said. "We executed and went after the ball well. Our offense moved the ball at times, but those penalties hurt us."

Looking to the Scots next foe, Clear Fork, Gus tells they are very similar to Paul Bremminger's Viking outfit. "They have a fine quarterback in Jim Jensen (6-2, 160-lb, junior), he's a good runner and throws the ball well," comments Marquis. He also plays safety "and does a good job in shutting River Valley down." As for the team as a whole, Gus relates, "they are real good; they trailed the first half and came back to put two touchdowns on the board in the second half. They also held Fredericktown scoreless."

Fork went on to defeat the Redskins, 24-14. In closing, Marquis pointed out, "it will be a tough test for us."

Scott Low, Galena resident and Columbus Academy grad, begins his sophomore season this Saturday as the Ohio Northern football team travels to Mount Union. Highland Survives Flags To Shut-out Vikings, 14-0

by Steve Kesler

Despite several penalties in key situations, Highland's football team survived the yellow handkerchiefs to gain a 14-0 shutout over River Valley at Sparta last Friday.

The Fighting Scots used a balanced running and passing attack to open the season on a bright note, although they were flagged 7 times for 85 yards. Highland now leads the series by a 3-1 margin and marks its first fall's RV blanking.

Coach Gus Marquis' troops now travel to an improved Clear Fork team, which defeated Highland's own Ken O'Quinn tacked on the successful extra point with 3:37 remaining.

The Vikings had their deepest penetration of the contest following the Scot kickoff. On the second play, quarterback Keith Studer uncorked a 35-yard pass to running back Keith Schwaderer that carried to the Scot 20.

Things started to bog down here as Highland was caught holding, which moved them back to the 27. With three down, the Scots tried two straight passes and came up just two yards shy of a first down. They had used up over nine minutes in this particular sequence.

Highland got on the scoreboard for the first time this season after River Valley fumbled Jim Gray's pass attempt. Two plays after Randy Bowser's recovery at the 12, running back James Kraviec broke up the middle man, which distanced the Vikings. Ken O'Quinn tacked on the successful extra point with 3:37 remaining.

The Vikings had their deepest penetration of the contest following the Scot kickoff. On the second play, quarterback Keith Studer uncorked a 35-yard pass to running back Keith Schwaderer that carried to the Scot 20.

The Highland defense rose to the occasion and held the visitors on downs.

In the third period, the Scots were on the move again as they marched to the RV 30. Another penalty got in the way - a 15-yard holding variety - and Highland was backed up to the 45. On fourth down, Gray got off a punt that put the Vikings in the hole at the three.

As the fourth quarter began, River Valley was forced to punt. The ball sailed over the kicker's head, he went back to pick it up and then threw to a teammate at the 10. As he was tackled, a 15-yard dead ball penalty was called on the Scots.

Starting at the 25-yard line, Highland was again flagged for holding and this moved them further back to the 40. They eventually punted the ball to the Vikings 15.

River Valley then punted with the Scots getting the ball on their 40. Three plays later, Gray hit Kraviec on a short five-yard pass and the junior speedster then turned on the jets in a play that covered 35 yards and resulted in a touchdown. Gray's 35-yard pass was the 5-41 mark O'Quinn added his second point-after-touchdown (PAT).

The Vikings didn't give up as they took the kickoff to their own 37. In five plays, they were on the Highland 30 - thanks to a 26-yard run by Schwaderer.

On the next play, however, Perkins intercepted Studer's pass on the goal line and returned it to the 15. The Scots then ran out the clock to end the game.

Individually, Deckling rushed for 61 in 19 carries. Kraviec had 71 yards in 13; Bosworth tumbled 6 times for 19 yards and Gray called his number twice for 18 yards. In passing, Gray was 11-18 with Perkins catching 7 for 39 yards; Josh Deming 3-7 and Kraviec the one for the long TD.

Team-wise, Highland had 12 first downs to RV's 7 and they totaled 360 yards on 196 rushing

Boys Trip Dublin, Girls Level Record

By Steve Kesler

Big Walnut's girls and boys cross country teams gained victories Tuesday afternoon as they both defeated Dublin at Avery Park.

The boys used second through fifth place efforts to snuff down the Shamrocks 21-38 while the girls collected a shutout win as several Dublin runners failed to complete the 3.1 mile course. The boys are now 2-0 and the girls show a 1-1 slate on the season.

Coach Jim Boyd and his Eagle carriers will be on the road again in the next three meets. Saturday, the top seven varsity boys travel to the Tiffin Invitational, which starts at 11 a.m. next Wednesday (Sept. 12) both groups go to the Licking Heights event and the following Saturday (Sept. 15) the two teams will be at the Watkins Memorial Invitational.

Finishing as runner-up against Dublin was Mike Feazel, who clocked the relatively flat lay-out in 16 minutes, 23 seconds. Right on his heels was teammate Greg Simpson with a 16:24 performance. Matt White of Dublin won in 15:46.

Following that pair was Greg's brother, Ray, with a fourth in 16:29 and Rick Bracken at fifth in 16:57. Rounding out the top ten were Steve Morgan in seventh at 17:37 and Derek Galt in eighth at 17:52.

Coming in 11th was Roy Hubbard at 19:14, Chris Roddy was 19th in 19:21. Randy Van Buren.

16th in 20:03, Bob Bloom, 17th in 20:10, Petr Saari, 18th in 20:19, Chris Feole, 20th in 21:34 and Sean Haubert, 21st in 21:36.

Last Wednesday, Aug. 29, the boys participated in the Maroon Franklin Run, which consisted of mostly AAA city schools. In the senior division, Poole was third in 17:03 and Ray Simpson was fourth in 17:07. Over in the sophomore race, Greg Simpson took first in 17:11. Bracken was second in 17:37 and Morgan fourth in 18:03.

Tuesday's girls event saw Beth Carrano take second place honors as she entered the finish chute in 22:02. Kristi Rose was third in 22:44 and Lisa Laughlin grabbed fourth in 22:45.

Holding down the seventh place spot was Beth Houser with a time of 26:35. She was followed by Barb Bracken, eighth in 28:36, Kim Hyatt, ninth in 29:16 and Kim Buell, 10th in 29:32.

"We're trying to come along gradually," Boyd says of both the boys and girls. "Many young runners are beginning to get in shape enough to race. We are pleased with the results up to this point, but everyone still has a lot of work to do before our different teams take shape."

How to Handle Those Hot Peppers

by LeAnn R. Kersh
Co. Ext. Agent, Home Ec.

"Peppers" some like 'em hot! And we Extension Home Economists don't need a scientific study on the changing tastes of Americans to tell us that more people are eating hot peppers.

In the past few years, questions on preserving hot peppers have at least quadrupled. And every year, somewhere in the U.S. we hear of a botulism food poisoning outbreak caused by home canned hot peppers. Obviously, our information on preserving them safely hasn't reached everyone yet.

One problem to overcome is that the scientific information goes a bit against our "common horse sense." Horse sense "tells us" no bacteria—no matter how ornery—could possibly live in a food so hot it requires a galvanized stomach just to eat it. However, that theory doesn't hold up. To prevent bacterial growth and food spoilage, low acid foods need to be heat processed in an acid solution. And hot peppers are a low-acid food. They're just hot, not acidic!

In fact, you may actually get burned while working with hot peppers. So protect your hands by wearing rubber gloves; then be careful not to touch your eyes while working with the peppers. If you get burns, the Poison Control Center recommends the following treatment: Wash the burn with vegetable oil and submerge in ice cold milk or a milk of magnesia product.

To can hot peppers safely, we recommend using a pickled recipe. Here's how: Wash hot peppers to remove dirt. Then cut them in whole peppers or, cut peppers into pieces. The object is to make sure the acid brine will coat the entire surface of the pepper in the jars. So cutting slits in whole peppers will allow the brine to bathe the inside of the pepper as well as the outside.

Then, fill canning jars loosely with peppers. Packing peppers too tightly can keep the acid brine from completely reaching all parts of all peppers.

Now you're ready to make the acid brine. If you're canning a large quantity, dissolve 3 tablespoons of crystalline citric acid in 1 gallon of water. For a smaller quantity, 1½ teaspoons of citric acid per quart of water. Bring the citric acid brine to a boil and pour in jars. Completely cover peppers with brine.

By the way, citric acid is the same product we recommend to use in acidifying canned tomatoes. It's available in drug and some grocery stores and isn't extremely expensive.

Place filled open jars in the canner. Water level should be about 1½ inches below the tops of the jars. Heat pints for 7 minutes and quarts for 10 minutes. This exhausting process is important. It drives out air bubbles and gases in the food and helps get a better seal on the jar.

Now, prepare lids according to the manufacturer's directions. Place lids on jars and process in the canner should cover jars by about 2 inches. Don't start timing the processing until water reaches a full rolling boil.

Process pints for 65 minutes; quarts for 85 minutes. This seems like a long time—it is! Don't skimp. The long processing time is needed to assure a safe vacuum seal.

If eating hot peppers is about to become a new experience for you, be prepared. Milk is the most effective liquid to drink to put out the fire.

ACR Is Farmer Responsibility

The Delaware County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) is reminding farmers participating in the 1984 wheat and feed grain program of their responsibilities in controlling erosion, insects, weeds, and rodents on the designated acreage conservation reserve (ACR).

ACR must be devoted to practices that will protect the acreage from wind and water erosion throughout the calendar year ending Dec. 31.

Program provisions call for the farm operator to use the needed control measures in a timely manner. Control measures for weeds need only be sufficient to prevent the spread of weeds. However, the measures used should be consistent with control practices normally carried out on similar cropland in the area. This involves, in most cases, mowing or clipping of the fields. ACR must not be harvested and there can be no grazing prior to the announced end of the nongrazing period for the county.

Special practices for maintenance of the ACR must be applied for and must be approved by the county committee.

Elementaries Host Scout Night Monday

Area boys and their parents can learn more about local Scouting programs at "School Night on Scouting," Sept. 13 at the Big Walnut and Souders Elementary schools.

At Big Walnut, Pack and Troop 247, and at Souders Packs 201 and 347 will talk about Scouting with interested students and parents. Elementary schools will be open that evening for boys and parents to talk with youth and adults active in Scouting and view displays. Leaders of Cub Scout packs and Boy Scout troops will be present to answer questions and enroll boys in Tiger Cubs, Cub Scouting and Boy Scouting units in their neighborhoods.

The local "School Night to Join Scouting" effort is part of a nine-county campaign to encourage new boys in Scouting. More than 150 boys from the Delaware district are expected to join during this year's school night.

This year's school night theme, "Discover the Magic of Scouting," is intended to invite boys and their families to experience the many fun-filled activities and events that go along with being involved in Scouting. Scouting offers programs tailored to specific age groups. As boys grow older, they progress in the program and advance to higher levels of Scouting which help them develop while challenging their skills.

Tiger Cubs is a home-centered program designed for 7-year-old boys and a parent or other adult partner. The program, in its third year, enables each boy and adult partner to spend quality time together by participating in a variety of learning experiences and activities. Once a month, Tiger Cub "teams" meet in small groups for planned activities such as nature hikes, games and crafts, or a trip to a zoo or museum.

The program is suited to both single-parent and traditional families, and adult partners can be relatives or family friends. This year's Tiger Cub coordinator is Sandy Wicker, of Delaware.

The Cub Scout program is available to boys in the third through fifth grades and features weekly den meetings where boys learn new skills and participate in Scouting activities. Once a month, dens come together in pack meetings for special activities, recognition ceremonies for the boys, skits, songs and games. Boy Scouting is geared to boys in grades six through 12 and teaches more advanced Scouting skills through outdoor camping and similar learning experiences. Scouts meet weekly in troops, and also participate in weekend camps.

Persons unable to attend school night can call the Central Ohio Council, Boys Scouts of America, 436-7200 or contact Matt Ackerman, District Executive for the Delaware District, 363-3236, for more information on how to join Scouting.

They all went out for dessert as this was Virginia and Dick's 30th wedding anniversary. John came down on Friday evening and they had concrete brought for garage floor and to raise the front part into the house.
