Laidlaw Wants To Raise Trash Rate 27% Nov. 1

Operators of Delaware county's Solid Waste Disposal Transfer Station have asked commissioners for another raise in the price of trash collected at the station.

Commissioners have set three hearing dates on the request by Laidlaw Waste Systems, Inc., requesting that the rate of $4.62 per cu. yd. be increased to $5.88, a $1.26 per yd. increase.

Commissioners set hearing on Monday, Oct. 6, Tuesday, Oct. 14 and Monday, Oct. 20, to hear testimony on the rate increase, a 27 percent increase over present rates. Laidlaw says increased

Richest Jug Ever Runs This Afternoon

Richest Little Brown Jug ever and the Junior Fair Steer, Poultry and Rabbit Sale draw the top billings for the final two days of this year's Delaware County Fair today and Friday.

Eighteen horses fill the two divisions in the 41st running of the Little Brown Jug racing classic, with racing beginning today at 12 noon. Largest total purse ever, surpassing that of the 1984 Jug, comes to $407,500 for today's race.

Gate admission to the fairgrounds is $8.00 today, up until 5 p.m. when the gate drops back to $4.00. Friday's gate will be free, unless today's racing is postponed for some reason.

The Little Brown Jug is, of course, the attraction of the Delaware County Fair, as the Jug is the second "jewel" in racing's Triple Crown. But, other events for the none-racegoers are also on tap at the fairgrounds.

Senior fair hosts championship Sheep Shearing competition open to the world, this morning at 10 a.m., in the coliseum. And, from 9 a.m. through race time, Patchwork, a folk-singing group from the Mansfield area, will be performing on the stage outside the secretary's office.

Oleontangy High School band will play the hour preceding post time over on the track, and the first of an entire afternoon of races gets underway at noon.

As the races come to a close about 5:30 p.m., a golden oldies 5-piece band from Columbus called Energy will be performing from the secretary's stage, with dancing encouraged.

Then, at 7 p.m., the steers, champion chickens and champion rabbits, as well as a gallon of milk, will go on the auction block in the coliseum. Ag agent Bob Irvin reports 60 head of cattle, 10 pens of meat rabbits, and four pens of meat chickens will be sold, as well as the milk, sponsored by the county Dairy Service unit.

Then, Friday, the Midway will be open from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m., as the free gate heralds the end of the fair. Boy Scouts of the Delaware unit will hold their Pine-wood Derby, beginning at 4:30 in the coliseum, and Delaware's rock group, Destiny, will perform beginning at 7:30 on the secretary's stage.

This year's Delaware County Fair has played to record crowds daily, with near perfect weather, and the final two days promise to keep those records falling, both on the track and off.

Football Helpers To Be Part of Booster Drive

Boosters will have tables set up at the main gates during Friday's grid contest with Jonathan Alder. If you buy a membership at the game, organizers Vern and Sally Kayser ask that you put the card on your door and the athletes will not stop Saturday.

The Saturday portion of the canvass will be conducted from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Cost of a membership, say the Kayser's, is just three dollars.

Cooking, Riding, Square Dancing at Delaware County Fair

Local residents were cooking, riding and square dancing at the Delaware County Fair Sunday, as evidenced by the above photos.

Fair continues today and Friday, with the 41st running of the Little Brown Jug pacing classic leading the list of attractions.

rates at landfills are causing the rate increase.

A rate increase at the trash transfer station, if passed, would be the second this year. County granted Laidlaw's request Feb. 1 to increase the rate from $4.47 to $4.62, in accordance with the rise in the Consumer Price Index (CPI). That rate increase was granted with little opposition.

The new increase, if passed, would go into effect Nov. 1, and also be adjusted according to the CPI in succeeding years. In other business Monday, commissioners forwarded a letter requesting the lowering of the speed limit along Sunbury Rd. to the engineer's office. About 40-50 residents along Sunbury Rd. are asking the speed be dropped to 45 mph. Between Harlem Rd. and Big Walnut Rd., Engineer's office will study the request before sending it on with their recommendations to the Ohio Dept. of Transportation for final action.

ated and needed. We need more financial support than fair revenues can provide. We need to make major building improvements is the point I wish to emphasize.

Why have people avoided contributing to fair improvements? Probably because the fair board has not indicated financial help is needed. I would like to tell you about one lady that has given me $100.00 the past three years for Junior Fair use. I will name this lady as she will not mind. I am speaking of Bertha Cockrell, 2275 Iron Corners Road, Galena.

Bertha told me recently that I had a problem in being too shy in asking people for financial support for the fair. She said there was nothing the city and county that would like to be asked. I guess I need to sit down with Bertha and make a list.

The Delaware County Fair is a very good county fair. We need to work with the city and the excellent category. Persons able to provide additional financial support should make it known. We need them.

FARM FACTS...

Fair Could Use Major Donations

by Robert Irvin Co. Est. Agent, Ag. & CNRD

Delaware County Fair will be in progress or recently closed at the time you are reading this column. The fair is always an interesting process to me. You see children and parents working together. You see groups of 4-H advisors assisting their members with judging activities.

You see volunteers helping conduct Junior Fair show and sales. You see Junior Fair Board members assisting with various activities. You see groups of 4-H advisors and leaders for their efforts to make the Junior Fair a success.

their yearly activities with a concession stand plus conduct the Pedal Tractor Pull activity.

It takes a lot of people and a lot of time to conduct a county fair. There are many hours of volunteer time that go into the operation of the Junior Fair. I would like to say thank you to the 4-H, FFA, FFA and Girl Scout advisors and leaders for their efforts to make the Junior Fair a success.

The people of Delaware and Delaware county need to recognize that maintaining the fairgrounds in the manner the fair board has been able to do is a costly process and seems to get more expensive each year. I have had a number of people this year as well as other years tell me how nice the Delaware county fairgrounds appears. They need to recognize it appears that way because the fair board spends a lot of dollars keeping the grounds that way.

Some people evidently feel the fair board is "floating" with money. I will assure you that is not true. Yes, the fair is financially solvent. The fair is not financially in a position to take on any major building projects.

I have served on the fair board several years now. I do not know of any major money contributions to the fair in that time, and I have never heard of any prior to that time. Universities, churches, organizations and other groups receive contributions of $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 or even millions of dollars from estates, businesses or foundations.

The Delaware County Fair to the best of my knowledge has never received a major contribution for a building project from an estate, local business or foundation. The FFA and FFA chapters raised $10,000 in the early 60's for the Junior Fair building which was built in 1964. We did have a few individual contributions but no major amounts from individuals.

Persons could contribute to fair improvements by making large or small gifts as the fair does to make a non-profit organization. It is time for the people of Delaware and Delaware county to make a more active role in improving the fair facilities.

What is needed in the way of improvements, in my opinion, are some new livestock facilities which would move the livestock further away from the eating areas. This would require some major investments to replace the bed, sheep and swine barns. Some people would like to see a riding arena with a roof over it. There are a large number of horse shows at the fairgrounds.

A number of requests are received by our fair secretary for a heated building for meetings and other uses during the winter months. Some additional staff eating facilities are needed. The fair itself is not generating the kind of revenue sufficient to build the facilities I have mentioned.

If the Delaware and Delaware county communities want major improvements then I guess we need financial help. I am saying is that outside financial help is needed. I would challenge persons interested in the progress of the fair to look at the fair facilities and do a little dreaming of their own on how the total facilities could better serve the total community. While you are doing this think about how your dreams could be financed and think about individuals, groups or others that might be willing to make financial contributions.

Please don't think from what I have said above that individuals, businesses and groups are not supporting the Delaware county Junior and Senior Fairs. We have a large list of trophy donors, award donors plus groups doing volunteer or group service work. This kind of support is appreciated.

CONSERVATION CORNER...

Federal Programs To Mean Compliance

by Tom Edwards USDA Soil Conservation

Farmers who want to stay eligible for most federal farm programs will have to control erosion on their highly erodible land. This provision of the Food Security Act of 1985, this year's Farm Bill, is not clearly understood yet by farmers.

Soil conservation has been a voluntary thing in the past. This is the first time that price supports, disaster payments, loans, crop insurance and other USDA programs will be dependent on a farmer not having erodible land. We have a big job ahead of us in making sure farmers understand what's involved.

Some of the provisions are in effect now, and others are keyed to 1990 and 1995.

Under the "sodbuster" provision, farmers who apply for next year's farm programs must certify that they have not broken out highly erodible land in order to produce agriculture commodities since Dec. 22, 1985, unless they follow a conservation plan approved locally by the soil and water conservation district board. Sodbuster applies to lands where farmers did not produce an annually planted crop from 1981 through 1985.

Under the "swampbuster" rules, they must certify that they have not drained or converted wetlands since Dec. 22, 1985, in order to produce crops. The sodbuster and swampbuster regulations are in effect now, but there are many questions on them. But many, many more farmers are going to be affected by the conservation compliance provision. That provision applies to anyone who is farming highly erodible land.

It says that anyone farming highly erodible land has until Jan. 1, 1990, to develop and begin to apply a conservation plan, and until Jan. 1, 1995, to have it fully in effect.

SCS estimates that more than 41 thousand acres of Delaware county cropland are in the highly erodible category. In the county, highly erodible land is identified by the National Resources Inventory.

With highly erodible land spread across the county, the compliance provision is going to mean a big workload increase for the next ten years. Many of the conservation plans written in the past need to be updated or entirely redone.

The conservation plan will require the landowner to reduce soil erosion to "tolerable" levels in most cases. The tolerable levels in Delaware county often referred to as "T" are generally from three to five tons of soil loss per acre per year, depending on soil type.

USDA has issued rules on the conservation provisions. The rules were needed because until now, the government has in effect encouraged increased soil erosion and loss of wetlands by promoting maximum production through USDA farm subsidies.

Many farmers have come to depend on these price supports and other USDA programs. Some have even come to regard the privilege of participating in them as an absolute right. It is only fair to ask a certain level of conservation performance.

SCS and other USDA agencies are encouraging farmers to bid highly erodible land into the Conservation Reserve, another program established by the 1985 Farm Bill. In the program, landowners are paid annual rental fees by USDA for converting highly erodible cropland to grassland or trees. USDA's most recent sign-up was Aug. 4-15. Sign-up for this program is at local Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service offices (ASCS).

We want to do the best we can to be sure farmers understand what's being required for conservation compliance. We know this is coming, and the last thing we want is 100 farmers on our doorstep in 1989, asking for a conservation plan so they can remain eligible for other USDA programs.

YOUR EYES

By
Dr. Brian A. Dittenber
EXTENDED WEAR LENSES

After a complete eye examination and case history evaluation, your optometrist will be able to determine whether you are a successful candidate for extended wear contact lenses. The concept of extended wear actually varies with each patient. Some people can wear the lenses for 14 to 30 days without any apparent ill effects. Others can wear them no more than 48 hours, without removal.
Strict adherence to a hygienic regimen and a commitment to frequent followup visits to your optometrist are essential to assure the safe and successful wearing of extended wear contacts. The patient must also be prepared to practice self-inspection. If an eye looks red, remove the lenses and see your optometrist as soon as possible.

The extended wear contact lens may be the best method of contact lens correction for the post-cataract patient, or for the older patient with unsteady hands. For most people, however, the daily wear soft contact lenses provide clear vision without glasses, though they must be removed for sleeping.

Discuss the pros and cons of daily wear vs. extended wear contact lenses with your optometrist before deciding which kind are for you.

Brought to you as a community service by Dr. Brian A. Dittenber, Optometrist, 30 South Vernon Street, Sunbury, Ohio, 965-4671.

LAWN & GARDEN TIPS...

Save Those Leftover Seeds

by Robert Irvin
Co. Ext. Agmt. Ag. & CNRD

What should be done with leftover garden seeds? Should they be kept for next year? Should I save seeds from seed producing plants in my garden?
Saving leftovers or collected seeds through the winter is not difficult. The seeds should be stored in a dry cool place. Place the seeds in sealed jar. Be sure they are kept in their original packages or that the seeds are sealed in a plastic bag. Store any useful information pertaining to the seed with or near the seed.

One suggestion for keeping the seed dry. Put two tablespoons of powdered milk wrapped in tissue in the jar. The powdered milk will absorb the excess moisture.
I see nothing wrong with storing leftover seed. If it is stored as suggested above and it was fresh seed during the last planting season it should grow the following season. You do not need to recognize that germination may be slightly less for carried over seed so you need to plant at a slightly higher rate if

It will soon be time for a weekend drive to view Ohio's beautiful fall colors. The fall harvest is also occurring. Plans are being made for this time and to experience a rich Ohio tradition, plan a visit to one of Ohio's wineries or vineyards where grape juice and wine are still made just as they were 100 years ago.

Ohio has over 50 wineries and over 100 vineyards. Most wineries offer tours and tastings for free where the visitor will get the unique opportunity to taste the fresh juice and see the age-old tradition of winemaking take place. The sweet aroma of ripening is heavy over the vineyards in all parts of Ohio. These grapes can be bought to take home to eat or make your own juice or jelly or wine. Just enjoy a picnic at one of the scenic wineries while enjoying Ohio's finest juice or wine.

The Grape Hotline has brochures and information about tours and grapes and wine in your area. Call 1-800-222-3664. Two grape festivals will highlight the time for celebration and work in Ohio's major vineyard areas. The Geneva Grape Jamboree will take place on Sept. 27 and 28 in downtown Geneva. The Erie County Vineyard Days will happen from Sept. 19 to Oct. 5 at locations all over Erie county. Call 1-419-625-2984 for more information.

The Ohio Grape Industries Program shares the recipes of the winners of the first "Cooking with Ohio Wine Contest" held at the 1986 Ohio State Fair.

"Cooking with wine is a delicious way of flavoring food and there is no better wine than Ohio wine," says Larry Lockshin, executive director of the Ohio Grape Industries Program. "I was extremely pleased with the results of this year's contest and we urge anyone who wishes, to enter next year through the State Fair."

Some of the winning recipes are:

celebrate birthdays. The Rural Homemakers met Thursday at Mary Fernon's home with eight members attending. Some brought their hobbies and sold about them. Plans were made for the year.

The Jim Sheets family went out to eat to celebrate Laura's 6th birthday Sept. 3.

Many were busy last week fixing their booths and taking their projects to the Delaware County Fair.

Last Sunday Mary Carme McNamara visited Pat and Donna McNamara, who will be moving to California soon. Thursday evening, Mary Carme went to the Marion Catholic soccer game with the Jim Thomases to see her grandson play in the rain.

They lost their game. Our sympathy is with the family of Erik Schirzinger, 16, who died last Wednesday after football practice at Olentangy High School. He leaves his parents, Randy and Hevea, brother Randy Jr., of 3200 Home Road, Powell, his paternal grandparents, James and Beulah, 3375 N. 33rd & K Road, paternal grandfather, Ben Thomas, 8110 Kilbourne Rd., aunts, uncles and cousins. Funeral services were held Saturday with burial at Fairview-Memorial Park.

I returned home from Morrow County Hospital last Wednesday evening. I had surgery Friday Sept. 5. My roommate from Monday on was Lula Bowser of Olive Green. I'm not doing much yet but hope to get stronger each day.

Last Friday evening Stuart and Barb Caudill and their mother, Buretta Caudill for the weekend. Last Saturday Ken and Helen Freeman went to Eaton to see his brother, Howard. They stayed the night at Dr. Jim Freeman's and Sunday he came back with them to get their truck.

Everything is pretty full. That is where our Brown students in grades 1 through 5 go. Mike Von Ville, Linda Sheets and Fran VonVille went to the Greek Festival Sunday at the Greek Orthodox Church, Columbus.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. Lou Beason of Miramonte, Canada, came to spend the week with Russ and Jeanne White. They will spend much time at the county fair. Saturday Donna Garrison and Karen Henry went to the parade in Delaware with their grandparents, Russ and Jeanne White and spent the day with them.

This and That at Harlem

by Betty Johnson

I understand Nathan Ritchie is well enough to have joined his first grade class at the beginning of the school year. How wonderful! With all the wonders of modern medicine, maybe the worst is over for that nice family. Max Fling also is improving. Gary Johnson started back to work this week following some near falls on the crutches. He was very glad when those tools were no longer necessary. We had a very busy weekend at the Delaware fair - and know lots of the rest of you are over-extended this week. The rest of the world doesn't even imagine the time that livestock exhibitors spend with fair endeavors. Even our more docile vegetables and flowers take a lot of time to groom. Since the 4-H program is so large in Delaware county, a good percentage of the population seems to be involved. Big Walnut's band and marching line really looked sharp at the "Festive band competition" at Highland High School Saturday. The band executed the formations with great precision and had a great sound. The Drill team and Flag girls also showed a lot of verve and spirit. It was a very inspired and pumped-up group of young people and everyone seemed to appreciate them.

The band assemblage also played at the Ohio Wesleyan football game Saturday and were treated to a hogie that was a football field long - plus lots of other food by O.W.U. I don't know if they were working toward a Guinness World Record but it sounds like they might have achieved one!

Hope everyone enjoys our Delaware County Fair - and that the rains only come after - down so everyone can enjoy a great atmosphere of the hor-y set.

Searchlight Will Discuss Ancestors

The program will be games organized by Rachel Piper. There will be a sale of nuts, cones, corn, gourds, etc. with half the money to be donated to the club, Singer says.

Dues for the year of $5.00 are being collected. New program books for Oct., 1986-Sept., 1987 will be distributed to members. Nancy adds. Guests wishing to attend should call and hostess Rachel Piper at 965-2472.

JVS Develops Profile of Businesses

Delaware JVS is developing a business and industry profile that will be of benefit to all employers and students in Delaware county.
The profile will help employers obtain highly-trained, productive and skilled workers in the community, reports Supt. Mel Frass.
In addition, students will have access to employment information on each prospective employer in the county, and where best to use his or her skills learned at the school.
The school is very interested in working closely with employers to develop future business growth and development in the county.
Frass says. Representatives from the school this year will meet individually with approximately 1,000 employers and discuss how the school can best serve their needs in education and training.
Areas of vital importance include the vocational skills used in a business, experiences with new employees, and additional training that would benefit the business. Also, customized and individual training can be conducted by the school to meet business and industry specific needs, Frass says.
Students who are either currently enrolled at Delaware JVS or past graduates will have direct assistance in locating employers who need their skills. The placement office at the school will maintain a business and industry profile for each and every employer in Delaware county that hires employees in their area of specialized training. Students can quickly match their skills up with a potential employer in the county, Frass adds.
Additional information of the business and industry profile can be obtained by either visiting or calling the Delaware JVS Placement Office at 548-7734.

Supt. Cornn Reports On Highland Projects

Supt. Herschel Cornn reported to the Highland Board of Education last Tuesday that his new office area is about 80 percent complete, but that it would be several more weeks before the remainder of the office work is done.

Cornn reported the black-topping at the high school is complete, and that a wall has been erected in the Jr. High building to separate the classroom for the gifted and talented from a math class. He said many of the blackboards are being installed this week.

At the North building, Cornn reported, luck pointing and some masonry repair is still needed, while at West Elementary, most of the new doors have been installed. Some of the closers on those doors have not yet been installed, however.

Cornn in his report said the Teacher Inservice was very productive and that the Wednesday morning program honoring retirees and having a guest speaker was well received.

He also reported that as of the Tuesday board meeting, several students had not yet been accounted for, with school's beginning the week prior.

In their regular business, the Highland board employed Helen Nicholson as an assistant custodian at the West Elementary building, and accepted Debra Berkeley's resignation from that position, effective Aug. 31.

Hired on one-year supplemental contracts for this school year were: Mary Kepple, vocal music; Carol George and Katherine Conley, 6th grade camp advisors; and Brenda Denman, cheerleading advisor.

Board also named William C. Loebick, one-year term, and John Hankins, three-year term, to the Tri-Rivers Career Center General Advisory Committee representing the Highland district.

Next Highland board meeting is Sept. 22.

BW T.I.'s Will Have Booth At Open House

Big Walnut Teenage Institute will have a booth set up at the Big Walnut 6 school's Open House next Tuesday evening, according to advisor Twila Wood.

Woodie says two or three members of the high school T.I.'s will man the booth, which will have the theme, "Just Say No."

BW T.I.'s are students concerned with the drug and alcohol problem in the schools. "We have lots of activities planned, and we really want to get the parents more informed and involved," Twila explains. T.I.'s meet once a week to hear speakers and become better informed of the drug situation, she adds, and the meetings are open to everyone.

Sunbury, Ohio 43074

"HOW TO REDUCE SWELLING"

There are two kinds of swelling a person can have with their teeth, one is trauma and the other infection. But they are treated in very different ways.

Usually you will know if the swelling is a result of trauma, such as an overball hit to the jaw or a dental procedure such as a tooth extraction.

Swelling from infection is usually preceded by pain and may cause an overball sick feeling with fever and perspiration. In either case, you should see the dentist as soon as possible. Alleviating the swelling does not cure the cause.

For swelling caused by injury, the treatment is initially ice. The ice pack should be applied for a minimum of a half hour or so, then off for a half hour, etc. For swelling caused by infection, heat is applied. A heating pad, hot water bottle or hot towel applied to the face will dilate (enlarge) the blood vessels and enable more infection fighting elements of the blood or antibiotics, if they have been prescribed, to come to the infected area.

Anytime there is swelling due to infection contact your dentist as soon as possible.

Merkle Reaches National Drag Racing Semi-Finals

Local youth demonstrated his drag racing skill during the Division II Elapsed Nationals last weekend at Indianapolis, Indiana Raceway Park.

Bryan Merkle, a 16-year-old Big Walnut junior, advanced to the semi-finals with one of the last four cars in the competition. With that effort, he also helped his team to first place.

Bryan qualified to the Nationals after winning a special high school student race on Saturday, Aug. 23 at Pacemakers Dragway in Mount Vernon, his home track. He went against students from Centerville, Whitehall and Mount Vernon.

Drag racing is a family sport to the entire Merkle family. Patti and Bryan's father, Dave, serve as the pit crew.

"We love every minute of it," tells Patti. "Even our dog Sugar goes with us sometimes. We are very proud of Bryan."

Merkle drives a 1976 Ford Mustang 302 C.I. Cobra II in the races. His best elapsed times include 12.1 seconds-111 miles per hour on a one-fourth mile track and 7.77 seconds-90 mph over a one-eighth distance.

According to Patti, Bryan started racing an 80 Suzuki DS 80 motorcycle in 1984. "Dave thought Bryan would be safer in a car with four wheels rather than on a motorcycle," Patti says. "We converted over to the Cobra II during the winter months of 1984-85."

Dave was an active drag racer as well during the 1960's and early 70's. He won several National championships and was also a national record holder.

Besides racing, Bryan is a member of this fall's Eagle reserve golf team. The Merkle's live on Centerburg Rd.

Hunting, Cold Water Safety Are Ranger Topics

Hunting in Ohio and the "chilling facts about cold water safety" are two of the topics at the Alum Creek Corps of Engineers visitors center this weekend.

Hunt Ohio is the theme of a movie and short hunter safety lesson Saturday at 1 p.m. in the center, 5005 Lewis Center Rd. "You will be able to recognize most Ohio game species including whitetail deer, wild turkey and waterfowl," the Corps rangers say. Hunting maps for the Alum Creek area will also be available.

Saturday at 3 p.m., the Corps rangers will show a slide show and give a live demonstration on Hypothermia and Cold Water Safety. "Now that fall weather is here and winter is right around the corner, you need to know the facts about surviving in cold weather and water," the rangers say.

All day Sunday, the Corps will show movies, from the classics to modern day productions, at the center. "Our topics range from safety to Dr. Seuss," they explain.

For more information on any of the ranger activities, at Alum Creek, call the Corps office at 548-6151.

two-year, limited contract to serve as the principal of the Northridge-Homer Elementary School. Wanda Green was given a similar two-year, limited contract to serve as the principal of the Northridge-Hartford Elementary School.

Loudermelt is a graduate of Piquette College with a B.S. Degree, and Xavier University with an M.A. degree in elementary education.

His experiences in teaching include serving as a teacher with Pike county schools in Pikeville, Ky. He served as an assistant director of the Headstart Program in Pike county and as a teacher and basketball coach in East Knox schools in Howard.

He has also served as a building administrator and teacher at the McKean Elementary school, and coordinator for special programs for the North Fork Local School District of Utica.

Most recently, Loudermelt served as principal of Pataaskala Elementary school in Kirtlandville.

Loudermelt lives at 21 South Ridge Dr., Mount Vernon with his wife.

Green is a graduate of Bowling Green State University with a B.A. and an M.A. degree, and has been a teacher in the Northridge district for 20 years. She has served as head teacher in the Bennington Elementary school for six years, and most recently has served as a second grade teacher at Northridge-Hartford school.

Green lives at 374 Hillview Dr., Johnstown.

In addition, the board hired Mark Clinton Stull, SLD teacher; and Deanna Loucks, grade 7 and 8 Language Arts-reading teacher.

The board accepted the resignation of Ann Marie Porch, vocal music teacher, and amended the contract of Nicola Jo Myers to a regular teaching contract for the school year.

The board hired three substitute teachers: Melinda Betts, Martini's Have Third Son

Lady Harriers Earn Best Heights Finish

by Steve Kesler

Big Walnut's girls cross country team joined the boys with an equally successful week of action.

Coach Jim Boyd's squad finished second in the Licking Heights Invitational near Summit Station on Wednesday, Sept. 10.

That berth, in which the Eagles scored 77 points, is the best-ever in the LHI meet and since the 1983 Central Buckeye League championships. It also provided BW with its first trophy in three years.

Bexley, a fellow CBL member, won the title with 58 points. Following the Eagles were Hartley with 94, Sheridan with 94, Amanda Clearcreek with 107, Licking Valley with 115 and Johnstown with 123.

Six other teams also took part in the competition. With its runner-up showing and a fifth at Watkins Memorial, BW is now 33-5 overall.

Lisa Laughlin, a junior, was the first runner in for BW as she placed 13th in 22 minutes, 29 seconds. Mary Hale was two spots behind in 15th with a 22:38 effort.

Tammy Barr was the third person to cross the tape as she was 16th in 22:39. Krista Poderys was next in 20th with a 23:04 clocking and Tricia Brown closed the scoring by getting 24th in 23:18.

Leading the second wave of runners was Jill Sutton, 51st in 28:05. Kim Buell finished 62nd in 27:30 and Julie Weesley was 65th in 27:39.

In the last group, Leslie Gillenwater was 71st in 29:42. Two other teams also took part.

310 and Johnstown 368. Simpson again was the top individual runner for BW as he finished second in 16:50. Bracken backed up his senior classmate by taking third in 17:07.

Young was the fifth person to score for BW, taking 22nd in 18:39. Feazel was 54th in 20:01 and Carver, 58th in 20:13.

In the reserve race, Siders finished third in 19:32. Next were Millsbaugh, 11th in 21:01; Mitch Thompson, 30th in 24:16; Dwight Souders, 43rd in 24:16 and Tritt, 47th in 24:35.

"We were glad to win an invitational again," stated a happy Coach Boyd. "We had good strong performances from everyone."

other runners also participated as Lisa Day was 77th in 33:44 and Andrea Herd was 78th in 35:40.

"This was our strongest team effort in several years," pointed out Coach Boyd. "The gap between the first and fifth girl was one of the best ever - 49 seconds."

Watkins Memorial
The Lady Eagles also had their best performance in three years in this event last Saturday morning near Pataaskala.

Big Walnut took down fifth place, scoring 216 points. Newark Catholic was first with 58, Bexley 'A' second with 90, Fisher Catholic third with 175 and Pickerington fourth with 209.

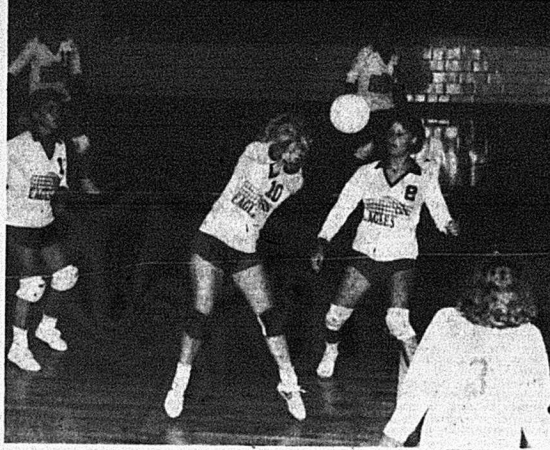

Hale, a senior, was first to cross the tape for BW as she placed 29th in 21:53. Next was Laughlin getting 32nd in 22:04.

Spikers Bump CSG in Two

by Steve Kesler

Big Walnut's varsity girls volleyball team regrouped from a disappointing loss with a resounding win last Thursday evening.

Coach Kim Woolley's troops overpowered Columbus School for Girls in two games, winning 15-9, 15-3. BW is now 2-4 on the season and 1-1 in the Central Buckeye League.

Missy Wickham, a 5-foot-6 junior, had the outstanding performance as she finished with nine points, a 10-10 serving and a 9-12 passing effort.

Amy Feazel and Kim Groome both followed with five points. Feazel was also 6-6 in serving and passing (including one ace) while Groome was 5-5 in serving and 4-6 in the latter category.

Robin Manny and Michelle Dumaree each scored three points with Manny adding a kill (unreturned spike). Jennifer Kayser and Kelly Vaughn chipped in with two points, Kayser adding a kill as well. Cheryl Smithberger closed with one point.

Grandview 2, BW 1
This match could have gone either way and the Bobcats pulled it out in overtime on Tuesday, Sept. 9 at the high school.

"We played extremely well with excellent defense," commented Coach Woolley after the tough 15-10, 12-15, 16-14 decision. "It hurts to lose the close ones, but the girls should be proud of the way they played."

Manny, a 5-6 senior, had her best game of the season with 13 points, a 20-21 serving effort with five aces, a 19-22 passing performance and two kills.

Kelly Robbins backed up with eight points, went 13-13 in serving with one ace and was 18-23 in passing. Feazel scored six points, was 7-8 in serving with two aces and 25-38 in passing.

Vaughn and Groome totaled five points each going 7-7 in serving. Vaughn added two aces and one kill and was 27-29 in passing. Kayser had two points and one kill.

(Reserve Report)
BW 2, CSG 0
The Eagles of Coach Polly Frensch had little trouble with the Unicorns in a 15-4, 15-5 victory. BW is now 3-0 overall and 1-1 in the CBL.

In a match that lasted barely a half hour, Pam McElwee was the leader with nine points. She had eight of those in the second game with seven-in-a-row to open the set.

Jill Landis scored six points, all in the first game with five straight. Lisa Roberts and Amy Forman both tallied five points, Julie Turske had two and Kathy Groome and Lisa Buell added one.

Grandview 1, BW 0
Eagles couldn't maintain a lead in the first game, falling 16-14 and then watched as the second contest got away as well in a 15-10 verdict.

Varsity First: Soccer Gets Win

by Bob Kennedy

It was just a matter of time before it happened. And it finally did.

Coach Jim Caudill's Big Walnut soccer team registered their first-ever varsity win on Tuesday, Sept. 9 by beating Briggs 3-0 in Columbus.

Ninety percent of the match was played on the Bruins' end of the field as BW took an almost unheard-of 52 shots on goal, keeping Briggs goalie Woodruff more than busy.

Doug Meacham scored two of BW's goals in the game. Zack Thompson notched the other one for the winners.

What pleased Caudill the most was the fact that "all 30 of my players got to play. And all of them played well, very aggressive."

The Bruins were able to take only eight shots on goal. Eagle goalie Dan Charnas turned them all away.

Olentangy 3, BW 1
Unfortunately, the momentum of the Briggs win couldn't carry over in a CBL look-up with Olentangy on Wednesday, Sept. 10 in BW's first home game of the season.

Both teams, in their first year as varsity squads, were active in their attempts at the net. The Eagles fired 22 times at Brave netkeeper Tony Watson with only Matt Hoover's shot getting past.

Meanwhile, Gary Benon turned out to be a bad dream for BW's Charnas as Benon scored all three Brave goals as part of a 29-shot attack.

Caudill explained the loss simply. "We didn't put the ball in the net. Maybe it was due to the fact we played on back-to-back nights, I don't know. But we just didn't score," said Caudill.

Bexley 2, BW 0
This past Monday, the Eagles tried their luck against Bexley in BW's second home game of the season. Despite the outcome, the Eagles played well with the veteran Lions.

The Eagles are now 1-4 on the year and 0-3 in the CBL. Their next Wednesday, BW closed out their three-game stint at home with a non-league against Marion-Franklin.

Bexley goals were scored by Al Early and Charlie Rath as the Lions attempted 21 shots on two BW goalies. Pat Bennett and Charnas. The Eagles also took 21 shots on goal against Mike Kirm.

"We played much better than our previous outing against Olentangy," said Caudill. "We had several chances to score, but just couldn't capitalize when we had the ball."

Offensive Line Gains More Confidence

Certainly the difference in last Friday's Big Walnut-Highland match-up was the play of the Eagles offensive line, known affectionately as the "Hogs". Many a time, the line would open gaping holes for the running backs as BW moved at will against the Scots. Members of that group should be recognized for their efforts and include tight ends Scott Palmer, Eric Schirzinger and Brent Ingram; guards Devin Shick, Scott Patton and Sam Franzani; center Scott Hutchinson and tackles Steve Palmer and Scott McKenzie. These guys have worked hard and as one can tell by the 40-point scores the last few weeks, they are starting to gel. In talking to one of the Hogs recently, he stated that he was feeling more comfortable and was adjusting to the situation. "The offensive line is a lot more confident," says Coach Hollie DeLong. "They look real good and are doing all the right things." One thing that bothered DeLong was the play of his defensive secondary, which gave up the four long bombs for Highland scores. "I coach those five guys and they'll get more work this week," he says. "You take away those passes and the defense would have looked a lot better." Speaking of the game in general, Hollie said, "We were a lot quicker than they were but I have a lot of respect for Gus (Marquis, Highland head coach). Offensive player honors went to Hutchinson, defensive plaques to Ingram and Scott Team player was Benji Jackson. Congratulations to Scott receiver Charlie Jesse on his six catches (including four TD receptions) for 225 yards, a performance that was overshadowed by BW's largest scoring outburst in two years. The Eagles return home Friday.

Lordy, Lordy, CLIFF'S 40!

to host Jonathan Alder, which is improved from last year. Although currently 6-3, the Pioneers "are bigger and stronger than we are but they lack depth and are slower," points out DeLong. Biggest threat offensively is option-oriented quarterback Donnie Salyer, a senior that goes 5-foot-8, 155 pounds. JA also has a "real good" defensive tackle in 10-18 Elmer Wolfe, a junior. "He's their sparkplug and a tough kid," adds DeLong. "They are a better team than last year and if they upset us, that would put them in the right direction." The Eagles start the Central Buckeye League slate Friday, so that should be improvement to continue their improvement. From here on out, all games begin at the regular time of 7:30 p.m.

Big Walnut had a nice write-up in the Dispatch Tuesday and stats were also included on the prep page. If you missed it, Hubbard is second in Central Ohio (first in the county) in scoring with 43 points. Mead is fifth and second respectively with 30 points. As for rushing, Hubbard is ninth in Central Ohio with 44 carries for 378 yards and Mead is tenth with 49 toes and 371 yards. Talk about a balanced attack! As a team, the Eagles received 11 votes for 11th place in the A-AA coaches poll.

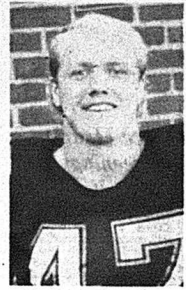

A large salute to the Big Walnut boys cross country team for winning back-to-back championships last week. The Eagles were first in the Licking Heights and Watkins Memorial Invitational.

In another coaches poll released Tuesday, the BW golf squad was rated second by the Central District panel. Academy tops the A-AA survey.

Apologies to the Condit and Sunbury Wesleyan softball teams. What I feared most turned into reality as the identification was reversed on the picture that ran last week. Wesleyan is on the left and Condit on the right.

Three area young people are participating on college football teams this fall. Scott Low, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Low of Galena, is starting his senior season at offensive fullback at Ohio Northern University. Two others - Mark Valr and Chip Hanawalt - have made the Capital University squad. Mark, son of Robert and Bettie Valr of Galena, is a 6-0, 220 pound freshman guard and Hanawalt, son of Leslie McMullen of Columbus, is a 5-10, 180 freshman running back. ONU opened with a 42-10 loss to Adrian while Capital defeated Bethany (West Va.) College 33-29.

Senior Bill Wentz picked up individual honors in this match with a two-over-par 38. Other Eagles contributing to the cause were Jim Howard at 40, Keith Hartzler with a 42 and Scott Counts and David Parrio each at 43.

For the Braves, Mark Sulsar came in with the best score, posting a 41.

The Golden Eagle reserves also played and won, this by a 187-195 count over the Braves. The win was BW's seventh in a row on the year and second straight in the league.

Pat Galley was co-medalist for the match, carding a 36. Backing him up were Brian Merkle and Brian Heppert at 46, Steve Neale at 48, Jason Lettice with 49 and Kevin Leary's 51.

Sharing Medalist notoriety with Galley was Olentangy's Marty Zabolnik, who also had a 44.

BW Takes Triangular Although the Eagles went up against Buckeye Valley last Wednesday (Sept. 10), DeSales also filled the bill, turning this encounter into a non-league match.

It made no difference as the Eagles prevailed handily. They posted a 159 to DeSales' 169 and BW's 183.

Wentz again was match medalist with a 39 at Table Rock. He was followed closely by Parrio, Howard and Counts with 40 and Hartzler at 41. The best for the Stallions was Eric Loren with a four-over-40. Buckeye Valley's Grant Youkum paced the Braves with a 41.

The Eagles reserves also were in action and suffered their first loss of the season. DeSales won the three-way match with a collective 175. The Eagles were next at 190 and BV had 219.

Neale came up with low honors for the match with a 48. Next in line were Lettice at 47, Hart with 48, Galley and Merkle both at 49 and Heppert's 53.

Jeff Kruezer of DeSales was medalist for the match with a 41. Buckeye's Tom Lynn posted a 53.

BW 162, Bexley 167 The Eagle linksters continued their winning ways last Thursday with a back-fought 163-167 win over Bexley at Table Rock.

The Eagles now stand 9-2 on the season and 4-1 in the Central Buckeye League's A-AA.

This past week, BW had a triangular with Hartley and Academy Tuesday at Columbus Country Club and host London today (Thursday) at Table Rock.

Wentz was co-medalist for the match with a 38 to pace BW. Behind him were Counts at 41, Parrio with 41, Hartzler a 43 and Howard with 46.

Chris Giller was the other medalist, shooting the same 38 for the Lions.

In the reserve match played, Bexley prevailed 172-182. It was the second straight loss for BW to lower them to 8-2 overall and 2-1 in the CBL.

Gary Walberry led the way for BW with a 42. He was followed by Neale with a 46, Galley and Merkle with 47, Hart at 48 and Lettice and Heppert with 49. Brad Wilson was medalist for the match, carding a 41 for the winning Lions.

Jaycees Announce 2nd 'Fundamentals'

On Sunday Sept. 28, the Big Walnut Jaycees will hold their second annual Football Fundamentals (formerly Punt, Pass, and Kick).

This year's chairman, Dave Martin, is planning on starting at 1:00 p.m. with a clinic and then right into competition. It is open to boys and girls, ages 8-12.

The competition itself consists of youths' punting, passing and kicking the football. They will have two chances in each category to make the ball go far and accurate as they can. The best effort will be recorded as their score with one point being assessed for each foot of distance and points subtracted for however many feet the ball lands from a straight line," adds Greg Hamm, president.

With the prizes supplied by sponsor W. R. Grading this year, the Jaycees are expecting twice last year's turnout of 77 boys and girls.

Prizes will be given out for first, second, and third place in each of the five age groups. They include a scarlet OSU jacket for first, a leather-grain football for second and a scarlet and gray OSU coaches hat for third.

In addition, youngsters will receive a certificate of recognition and the first place winners will move on to state competition in October in Bucyrus, tells Hamm.

Sign-ups will be the next two Saturdays (Sept. 20 and 27) at the Little League Football games or you can send in the form found elsewhere in The News.

If anyone has any questions, they can call chairman Martin at 965-2776, Hamm at 965-4542 or committee members Joyce Pinson (965-4159) and Jim Hildreth (965-1066).

"Once again I would like to remind you this is absolutely free to boys and girls ages 8-12, and the Jaycees look forward to seeing you at the Sunbury Playground Sept. 28 at 1:00 p.m.," Hamm says.

PPG Gives Scholarship Guidelines

Adam Stevenson, plant manager and foundation agent for PPG Industries in Delaware, announces plans for the 1988 Community Scholarship Program.

"The Foundation's four-year scholarship is valued up to $8,000," Stevenson says. "The winner will receive a stipend ranging from $500 to $2,000 annually, depending on the student's financial need and educational costs of the college."

Juniors residing in Delaware county, as well as children of employees and retirees at PPG facilities in the county, regardless of which secondary schools they attend, are eligible to compete for the scholarship. It will be awarded to a student planning to attend four years' full time at a college or university in the United States.

Juniors class students who will graduate in 1988 must submit an application form and take the combined Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMQT) on Oct. 19, 22 to be eligible for the scholarship, Stevenson adds.

Foundation scholarship brochures which include application forms have been distributed to area high schools. Juniors can obtain them by contacting their high school principals, or by writing to the Foundation Agent at PPG's Delaware plant.

Applications should be mailed to the Foundation Agent at the PPG plant by Dec. 12, Stevenson concludes.

Condit News Events

by Nancy Fuller

Congratulations to Carl and Emogene (Turnbull) Bell. They celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at the Sunbury Church of Christ. Their daughter, Wilma Jean Jackson and family helped with the celebration, along with other friends and relatives.

Where Heston's Greenhouse is now, I can remember when Mr. and Mrs. Bell lived there. Wilma Jean was in high school at Big Walnut. I remember many fun times, being at their house, when our Condit Presbyterian Church youth group met there for different events and things. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Bell many more happy years together and thanks for the memories.

Happy birthday to Patty Jackson of Boulder, Co. Her special day is the 17th.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Morris and daughters, have been Mark Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chesdale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fletcher, Mary Morris, and Mattie Fletcher.

Crystal Morris has been vacationing with friends in Boston, Ma. They also enjoyed visiting folks and sight-seeing in New Hampshire and Vermont.

Teresa Ann Fuller and Heather Longshore spent three days in Cincinnati visiting with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Gee Fuller Jr. and family.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kintner on their 50th wedding anniversary. They celebrated their special day at the Sunbury First Baptist Church. I don't think they remember the part they had in my life, back in 1932, but I know I'll always remember it and thank them for some memories. And we wish them many more wonderful years together.

Remember next Tuesday, 23rd, is the first day of fall. Winter isn't far off.
